SIX MEN DIE IN MINE EXPLOSION

Workers Quit As Teamsters Extend Picket Lines

CARGO WORK DELAYED BY NEW STRIKE

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Feb. 20.—(UP)—A teamsters' union tieup which threatened to extend to other Pacific coast ports, spread to outer harbor and Terminal island today, when longshoremen stopped work on two more freighters. More than 20 ship berths were idle.

Lines Extended
Teamsters, picketing in protest against a non-union hiring hall opened by the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association, extended their lines to the General and Luckenbach terminals on Terminal island and the Out Harbor Dock and Wharf company.

Two hundred longshoremen unloading 3,000 tons of cargo from the British freighter York City immediately walked off the job.

Picket lines tied up the Greek freighter Ariadne, but later withdrew upon being assured her cargo of Argentine corn was being transferred to railroad cars and would not be carried in non-union trucks. Twenty longshoremen resumed work on her.

The Dutch motorship Manoran called for 95 longshoremen but they refused to pass picket lines. A total of 375 longshoremen refused to work today because of the picketing.

Freighter Due
The French freighter San Francisco, due here from her namesake port today, was expected to sail on, leaving behind a consignment of cargo destined for Europe.

DEMOCRATS TO NAME LEADER

Coordination of all Democratic clubs in Orange county under the leadership of a president elected to represent the rank and file of the active Democrats of the county is looming as a result of charges hurled at a recent mass meeting that certain members of the Democratic Central committee actively supported Republican candidates in the recent election.

In Charge of Activities
According to the plan now being perfected for formal presentation at the Democratic "Victory" dinner to be held the night of March 4, the president of the county-wide organization will be elected by the various Democratic clubs and will be in charge of all party activities in the county.

The mass meeting, held in the Junior college auditorium, was called for the purpose of forming a county-wide organization. After electing the central committee, which will not have more than 100 members, Chester L. Dale offered a motion to the effect that Democratic clubs now existing in the county be continued but not under direction of the Democratic central committee.

This motion was passed as was another to the effect that communities where there are no Democratic clubs be reorganized, with the central committee acting in an advisory capacity only.

Present Plan March 4
Sponsors of the movement for co-ordination of Democratic clubs in the county pointed out today that the two motions were introduced and adopted to pave the way for presentation of the new plan on March 4. It also was pointed out that the position of president of the county-wide organization will not be an honorary position but will require the services of a man capable of heading all Democratic activities in the county and willing to devote considerable time to the work.

Santa Anita Results

ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 20.—Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' winter book favorite, "Case Ace," was scratched today as 24 crack 3-year-olds were named for the running of the $50,000 added Santa Anita derby Monday. Case Ace, considered the horse to beat, was removed by Trainer Bob McGarvey, because of the large field and a shoulder injury.

4 Club Women
Get Perfect
Bridge Hands

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Four perfect bridge hands estimated possibly only once in 158,000,000 deals—nearly sent four women members of a monthly bridge club into a faint last night. Mrs. Charles A. Verschoor, Ypsilanti, Mich., who cut the cards, held 13 clubs; Mrs. Edward Wenk, Ann Arbor, who dealt, held 13 diamonds; Mrs. Fred Read, Pinckney, held 13 hearts, and Mrs. Wayne Atlee, Plymouth, held 13 spades which gave her 2360 points and the prize.

BOMBS WOUND
ROME ENVOYS

ROME, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, viceroy of Ethiopia, was slightly wounded by a hand grenade thrown by a native, an official dispatch from Addis Ababa said today.

Gen. Aurelio Liotta, who was with Graziani, was gravely wounded, the dispatch said.

The Abuna Cyril, head of the Coptic Christian church which is the official Ethiopian church, also was wounded, as were some other natives.

Official dispatches indicated a carefully planned attempt to assassinate Graziani and the distinguished group that was with him.

The viceroy had just finished distributing gifts to a crowd of natives in honor of the Prince of Naples, when into the crowd there were thrown several hand grenades.

Official reports at first distributed did not say whether the bomb throwers were arrested or escaped in the confusion.

Graziani returned recently from a tour of southern Ethiopia during which official statements spoke of the hearty welcome accorded him.

ARREST MINISTER
AS NIGHT RIDER

WHITEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 20.—(UP)—A Baptist minister and his cousin were charged today with being members of "praying night riders" who have flogged and threatened a score of persons within a year.

Sheriff J. A. Russ of Brunswick county arrested the Rev. Vance Simmons, leader of a rural congregation, and his cousin, Garfield Simmons, a deacon, in connection with beatings allegedly administered to Jesse Cox and Will Irman last November.

The "night riders," active in the rural districts of southeastern North Carolina, were believed to have participated in the flogging of five men and two women last summer. The band, numbering at least 30, was organized, authorities said, to frighten persons whom it believed were "not leading a Christian life."

GREEN DEFENDED
BY LABOR COUNCIL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Internal labor strife flared again today at the close of the mid-winter meeting of the American Federation of Labor executive council.

The council rallied to the defense of William Green, A. F. of L. president, whose expulsion from the United Mine Workers union—a Committee for Industrial Organization—was urged this week by the U. M. W. policy committee.

U. M. W. is headed by John L. Lewis, who also is chairman of CIO. The 10 CIO unions were ousted from the A. F. of L. last year for organizing workers on an industrial instead of craft basis.

The council dispatched copies of a formal statement defending Green to all federation unions and 35,000 locals. The defense was unprecedented in A. F. of L. annals.

DENVER MAN KILLS WIFE

DENVER, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Failing in an effort to effect a reconciliation, James Linden, 21, early today shot and killed his 18-year-old wife, Mrs. Arline Linden, police reported.

Increase In
S. A. Permits
Is Revealed

With building construction for February, to date, running far ahead of the construction record for the entire month of February last year, Santa Ana strode forward today with improvements which already are bidding fair to establish one of the best local records in recent years.

171 Permits Issued
At the end of February, last year, 143 permits had been issued by the building department for construction valued at $120,220, yet up to and including today, this month has shown a record of 171 permits issued for construction valued at $194,668.

And in spite of the smudgy and rainy weather of January, as well as February, January, this year, had a record of 85 permits issued for $82,261 valuation, as compared with 61 permits and a $67,662 valuation for January, 1936.

Today, with issuance of three permits by Building Inspector H. O. Rasmussen, for home construction valued at $12,000, and a fourth permit for automobile shelter valued at $3000, construction was to be completed as soon as possible.

Homes Planned
A. R. Bennett, 468 East Myrtle, was granted a permit for construction of a new home.

NAVY MEN OPEN
QUIZ ON BLAST

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Feb. 20.—(UP)—With the gun crew cleared of blame, high fleet officers held a secret investigation today into the cause of a shell explosion aboard the old battleship Wyoming which killed seven marines and injured 13 others during war games off the coast Thursday.

A naval board of inquiry was believed to have convened aboard the U. S. S. New York, but no word was permitted to leak ashore.

The board considered findings of a navy inquest board, which ended its investigation by announcing that no blame for the explosion of a shell in a 5-inch gun could be placed against the Wyoming's personnel.

A marine gun crew was shelling the coast of San Clemente Island to protect a mythical landing party when the "warhead" of the shell burst.

One of those called before the board today was Chief Gunner's Mate J. G. Berry, hero of the disaster, who tossed a 25-pound sack of powder overboard before it exploded.

"Capt. Trumble (marine captain who was killed) was looking into the barrel of the gun, and one man was starting the shell into the breech," Berry told newspapermen.

"An awful roar burst out and we were blinded by a flash. Capt. Trumble, taking the full force of the explosion in front of me, saved my life."

ROMANIA SEEKS TO RECALL ENVOYS

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Feb. 20.—(UP)—The government has decided to demand the recall of the Italian and German ministers to Rumania, it was understood today.

The decision was believed to have been reached after a long conference between King Carol and Premier George Tatarescu.

The government was aroused because the two ministers, as well as several other foreign envoys, openly displayed sympathy with Rumanian Fascists by marching in the funeral procession of two members of the Fascist Iron Guard who were killed in a disturbance.

The question was raised heatedly in parliament and a cabinet crisis was threatened.

Gannett Hurt In Plane Accident

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Frank E. Gannett, newspaper publisher, was injured slightly today when the airplane in which he was a passenger broke a wheel while landing at the municipal airport.

MEXICAN IS JAILED HERE
FOR MURDER

Booked at the county jail on a murder charge after he was taken by surprise at the home of a Westminister friend about 10:30 a. m., Concepcion Vieyra, 40-year-old Mexican born resident of Walnut Street, Stanton, was being questioned today by sheriff's officers and Assistant District Attorney James Davis.

At about 2:10 a. m. this morning, Vieyra, using a heavy 45 caliber army automatic which he said he purchased for $20, allegedly shot Marcus J. Reza, 28, of Box 82, Stanton, through the groin. Following the shooting, Vieyra left his automobile in the garage and escaped.

Vieyra, leaving Joe Reza, brother of the victim, and Stephen Diaz to help the injured man. Young Reza lost so much blood when the bullet struck an artery in his leg that he died shortly afterward, allegedly naming Vieyra as his attacker.

When captured at the home of Joaquin Murrillo in Westminister this morning by Deputy Sheriff Steve Duhart, Walt Dungan and Ezra Stanley, Vieyra was in bed and had the death weapon beneath his pillow. One hundred and four dollars in Vieyra's possession was indicative that he may have intended to escape into Mexico, officers alleged.

Three Men Armed
According to Juan Vargas, 77, Westminister, who was an overnight visitor at the Vieyra home and who was held as material witness, Vieyra and the two Rezas and Stephen Diaz allegedly had been together during the evening and it was alleged all were armed.

First reports said that Vieyra entered his home and the remaining men continued to sing a sonnet on the opposite side of the street. It was alleged Vieyra fired three shots from his weapon into the air and then two shots at the men, one bullet lodging in Marcus alleged.

HOLD PARLEY
ON COURT PLAN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(UP)—President Roosevelt today called two groups of prominent senators to the White House to consider means of speeding consideration of his proposal for reorganizing the federal judiciary.

The White House did not announce the senators asked to meet with the president in the privacy of the White House proper but it was revealed that one group would be senate leaders and the other progressive bloc.

It was assumed that Senator Joseph P. Robinson, D. Ark., majority leader; Sen. Henry F. Ashurst, D. Ariz., judiciary committee chairman, and Sen. Sherman Minton, D. Ind., would be included among the senate leaders who were called for a 5 o'clock session.

The progressive group, scheduled to meet an hour later probably will include Sen. Robert LaFollette, P. Wis., and Sen. George W. Norris, Ind., Neb.

President Roosevelt, after resting over Sunday, will resume judicial conferences Monday.

He will meet then with representatives of the American Farm Bureau federation and Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace who will be in the group.

PAYMENTS OF FRANCHISE
TAXES TOTAL $24,638.24

Payments of franchise taxes for 1936 amounting to nearly $25,000 have been collected by County Treasurer T. E. Stephenson, he reported today.

The payments were made by two include $14,932.35 from the Industrial Fuel Supply company, and two payments from the Southern Counties Gas company, of $970.25 and $835.24 respectively.

Collections of this form of franchise tax constitutes one of the more complex items of county government, it is said. The 1935 grand jury gave considerable study to the question, and made various recommendations for computing and collecting complete amounts due the county.

NAVY OFFICIALS OPEN QUIZ ON SHIP BLAST

Unexpected tragedy claimed the lives of seven marines when a five-inch gun backfired on the United States battleship Wyoming during war game maneuvers off Los Angeles harbor. The other marines were seriously injured and were rushed by battleship to the hospital ship Relief based at the harbor. Photo shows injured men being taken off the Wyoming for transfer to the Relief. A navy board of inquiry today questioned survivors of the tragedy.

APPROVE BILL ON NEUTRALITY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(UP)—The senate foreign relations committee today approved a bill creating a permanent neutrality policy for the United States. It embodies a virtually mandatory "cash and carry" policy for trade with belligerent nations.

The only dissenting vote reported on the bill came from Sen. Hiram W. Johnson, R. Calif., who declared the bill was a "shotgun measure to keep us out of war and it doesn't do anything of the kind."

Chairman Key Pittman, D. Nev., of the foreign relations committee said the bill represented administration wishes.

The measure provides that the president shall issue embargo proclamations whenever he finds any nation is engaged in war or civil strife which threatens international peace.

On issuance of such proclamation it immediately becomes unlawful to export to such nations any arms, ammunitions or implements of war. The president also is granted power to add any other commodities to the embargoed list which he may find necessary to the war.

OWEN D. YOUNG TO
WED IN FLORIDA

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Owen D. Young, one of America's richest and most famous industrialists, will marry Mrs. Louise Clark of New York and St. Augustine, this afternoon.

Young is 62 years old. His bride was said by friends to be "very attractive" and about 30 years old.

Both have been married before. The first Mrs. Young died in 1935. Mrs. Clark has a four-year-old son by her previous marriage. She and her mother, Mrs. Walter Van Rensselaer Powis are known in New York society and the Powis and Young families have been friends for years.

2600 Strike
Over Youth
Legislation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Twenty-six hundred youthful paraders of the American Youth conference staged a "sit down" demonstration today in the streets before the White House.

The sudden "sitdown" in the broad driveway in front of the White House brought immediate action for government police, assigned to the White House grounds.

They arrested William Hinkley, resident of the youth group, and Abbot Simon, the legislative director of the movement. Hinkley and Simon ordered the sit down, police said.

The paraders, marching to the White House to present a petition in behalf of the Lundeen youth bill which would provide an initial $500,000,000 appropriation for youth aid, completely halted traffic when they squatted on the pavement.

From their sitting position, they shouted demands that congress pass the bill.

BATTLE LOOMS
OVER MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(UP)—A congressional battle over the administration's power policies threatened today following disclosure of plans for the $60,000,000 Bonneville, Ore., hydro-electric and flood control project.

Bill Defeated
Rep. Martin F. Smith, D. Wash., defeated a bill which he introduced as a "White House measure" for creation of a Columbia river authority—a "TVA for the northwest."

A "hot reception" for the measure was promised by Rep. Andrew Jackson May, D. Ky., opponent of the administration's power program, if it is referred to the military affairs committee on which he is the ranking majority member.

$10,000 Year Job
The bill provides for appointment of a Columbia river administrator by the secretary of interior at $10,000 a year. He would confer on policy matters with an advisory group representing war and interior departments and the federal power commission.

The legislation would give the administration powers to purchase, lease or condemn private property, including electric transmission systems.

Broad Authority
The administration would have broad authority to build and maintain transmission lines and substations, negotiate contracts for sale or resale of power, expand the markets for power and take other steps necessary to send the energy into "existing and potential markets."

EDEN COMPANY
BRINGS ACTION

Fulfilling a previously announced purpose, the Eden Refining company, of Huntington Beach, owned by William Iverson and Don Jerome, Santa Ana business men, today brought suit in superior court against the County of Orange, to collect a rejected demand for $1729.70.

Payment Held Up
The amount asked represents payments for road oil delivered to the county during last August, September and October, the quality of which oil was questioned after tests had been made, and payment for which was held up at the order of former Highway Superintendent Nat H. Neff.

The county supervisors formally rejected the Eden company's demand last Tuesday, this paying the way for the filing of suit today. The complaint, filed through Attorney Charles D. Swanner, asks interest on the principal amount dating from last Tuesday, when the claim was rejected, together with costs of suit.

No reference is made in the complaint to any question concerning the quality of the oil.

Political Issue
At the time the question first was raised, after tests were taken by former Chairman John Mitchell, of the county supervisors, who submitted the samples to laboratory test, a political issue was made of the matter by opponents of Supervisor William C. Jerome, father of Don Jerome.

Supervisor Jerome, as well as Supervisor Leroy Lyon, the two members standing for re-election last November, subsequently were defeated.

Meanwhile, however, Jerome had made a demand for a full investigation of the road oil matter by the county grand jury. The grand jury made the probe, and its report characterized the road oil controversy as a political plot against Supervisor Jerome. Evidence before the grand jury, it was understood, failed to show that any legal tests of the road oil ever had been made.

OFFER $1000 FOR
ARREST OF FIREBUG

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Counting half a million dollars as the two-month toll of activities of an alleged incendiary, Sacramento retail merchants today began collecting contributions to a $1000 reward to be offered for the capture of the person or persons who set the fires.

Rewards totalling $600 already have been posted. Paid police officers are not eligible.

Latest of the firebug's depredations, police believed, was a $35,000 blaze at the Elk Grove High school gymnasium yesterday.

ROMANCE OF ACTOR,
ELLEN MCADOO ENDS

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 20.—(UP)—The romance of Mrs. Ellen McAdoo De Onate, daughter of U. S. Senator William Gibbs McAdoo, D. Calif., and Rafael Lopez De Onate, Castilian motion picture actor, officially was at an end today, although she said they were still friendly.

Mrs. De Onate charged her husband with nonsupport of herself and small son in a divorce complaint filed late yesterday. They were married in Albuquerque, N. M., November 10, 1934, after Senator McAdoo sternly protested the union and threatened to disinherit his daughter.

FIVE OTHERS
HURT AS ORE
HITS POWDER

SPRING GARDEN, Cal., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Four miners were killed outright and two suffocated by gas, when an ore train struck a powder train, causing a terrific explosion which shook the Walker copper mine near here.

Five other men on the same level were knocked down by the concussion but their injuries were slight and they aided fellow workers on the night shift in removing the bodies of the victims.

Riding on Ore Train
The four who were killed instantly were riding on the ore train when it collided with a loaded powder train. The two other victims were working in a shaft above the point of the explosion and were overcome by gas, according to L. F. Bayer, manager of the mine.

The six who were killed were Lloyd Gilbert, Pat Burns, Herb Blauel and W. Schasker, riding on the train, and Louis Ghina and Carl Doming, working in a shaft. Burns was the only victim who was married.

Train Demolished
Because of the "hard rock" nature of the mine, the explosion caused no serious damage to the drift where the blast occurred. It demolished the powder train and wrecked a section of the track.

"Since the only witnesses—the four men riding on the train—were killed," Bayer told the United Press, "we don't know what caused the accident—why the ore train collided with the powder train. We can only guess. We don't know whether the train got out of control, whether a thrown switch was responsible, or what caused the collision."

"Perhaps our investigation, in collaboration with the state industrial accident commission, may determine the cause."

DEMAND STEEL
STRIKE ACTION

WAUKESHA, Ill., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Officials of the Fawcett Metallurgical corporation told mediators today that unless "the sheriff or the governor" clears 100 sit-down strikers out of its plant, it will do so itself.

To Clean Out Plants
"We are going to clean out the plants ourselves if the sheriff or the governor do not act right away," Max Swiren, company attorney, told State Labor Commissioner Martin P. Durkin.

Sheriff L. A. Doolittle, backed by 140 men and a court eviction writ, failed to move the sit-downers yesterday in a two-hour battle in which tear gas bombs and missiles were exchanged.

"If you can't settle this we'll demand that the governor call out the militia and enforce the court order," Swiren told Durkin.

Swiren said H. N. Keeley, another company lawyer, had postponed an airplane trip to Springfield to appeal to Gov. Henry Horner to give mediators a chance to effect a settlement.

Horne has been represented authoritatively at Springfield as feeling that the Fawcett strike is a "local situation" and that Sheriff Doolittle has the situation "in hand."

BIG STYLE SHOW GROUP BOOSTED

Iris Stein, chairman of the committee in charge of the Spring Preview and Style Show to be sponsored March 4 in Santa Ana by retail division of the chamber of commerce today announced appointment of other members of his committee.

The following members of the retail division were named: John Sebastian, Clyde C. Skinner, Huch Lowe, Carl Stein, Charles Givens, T. P. Sheffield, Walter Swanberger, F. E. Jones, George Kidd and John Cress.

After appointment of committee members, Stein sent letters to all merchants in the city asking their co-operation in the big spring event. In his letter he said that all co-operating stores will remain open on the night of the style show and urged that either the store manager or some other member of the staff be delegated as a reception committee to greet guests at the door of the store.

In his letter, Stein pointed out that each merchant co-operating in the event will determine what the co-operation shall be. He pointed out that some entries are planning parades of living models, some will present musical and other entertainment and all merchants will have special style displays for the day and evening.

SIX MEN DIE IN EXPLOSION

About 10 o'clock last night, word of the tragedy did not reach the outside world until today. The Walker mine is "snowed in" for the winter, and can be reached only by means of a tram line used to transport ore from the mine to a railroad spur at Spring Garden. The nearest town of considerable size is Quincy, 12 miles from here.

Coroner John F. Moody of Quincy was enroute to the mine via the tram line to study the scene of the explosion and take charge of the bodies. Ambulances waited here to receive the bodies and take them to Quincy.

The Walker mine, employing 400 men, is the largest copper mine in California. It is operated by the Anaconda Copper Mining Company.

At Mine Hospital
A spokesman for L. F. Bayer, mine superintendent, told the United Press that the five men injured received only minor wounds and were being treated for them and for shock at the mine hospital.

"The explosion occurred," he said, "on the 700-foot level when a dynamite train and an ore train collided."

"There were two men unloading the dynamite train and two on the ore train. Both we believe were killed instantly. The two others who lost their lives were nearby and we believe they were killed either by the force of the concussion or the poisonous gas released by the exploding dynamite."

The names of those injured were Arch Galeazzi, Browne Herzog, D. E. Clark, Ed Tulise and O. H. Ashley.

LOCAL KIWANIS ON LONG TREK

Santa Ana Kiwanis club members last night joined a huge group of Los Angeles Kiwanians from the latter city on a visitation to the Las Vegas, Nevada, chapter for a special weekend affair.

This was the announcement today of Dr. H. G. Huffman of this city, who was chairman of the committee that promoted the co-operation of the local organization. Other clubs also joined the trek, and will return to their homes late Sunday.

Among those from this city who made the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fernandez, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wehrly, J. P. Baumgartner, Dr. Melbourn Mabey and Dr. and Mrs. G. Emmett Raitt, and their daughter.

EX-STAR BOOKED FOR INTOXICATION

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Alice Lake, once glamorous star of the silent motion pictures, obtained her release on bail today after an hilarious night was climaxed with the former film beauty being booked at the county jail on intoxication charges.

Miss Lake gave her age as 40. Deputy Sheriff K. Cook and W. Wood said she was arrested in company with Thomas G. Tuck, 30-year-old machinist on a Hollywood street. She was ordered to appear Tuesday for arraignment.

CALLING ALL DOGS!

By Albert Payson Terhune

DON'T LET HIM PAW YOU

The chief joy of an ill-trained dog seems to be the wiping of his muddy paws on his owner's best clothes. The hooked foreclaws, too, can wreak hideous havoc on a woman's filmy white dress or silk stockings.

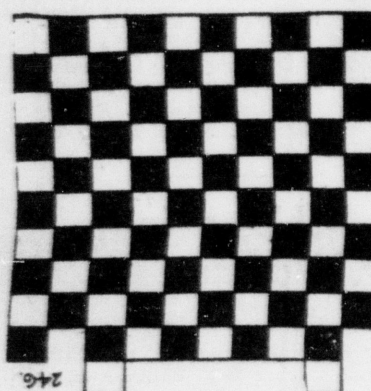

Through affection and wild exuberance of spirit, your young dog jumps up on you—preferably, it seems, when his forefeet are dirty—and paws ardently at you. It is dog nature. And it can be curbed. Especially if the cure be started early enough or with sufficient vigor and tenacity.

When your puppy tries to jump upon you and to plant his forefeet on your clothes, use a bit of deft footwork on your own account. Bring down one of your toes lightly but with enough firmness on one of his hind paws. Either one of them. Not hard enough to cause him real pain, but sufficient to pinch the paw. This will make him drop his forefeet to the ground in a hurry. After enough such experiences, he will stop trying to jump up on you. If that fails—as it almost never does—use one of your toes to trip up a hindleg of his and thus to "put him off balance." These two remedies are drastic, but they aren't cruel. And they are needful in breaking him of the habit.

Brain Twizzlers

By PROF. J. D. FLINT

While remodeling her home a woman had a new linoleum cover put on a sunporch floor. After the work had been completed a piece of linoleum was left of the shape shown above. In area it was large enough to cover the floor in a little hallway and the woman wanted to utilize the linoleum. She puzzled over the best way to rearrange the oddly shaped piece to form the perfect square necessary and yet have the pattern design uniform. Finally she asked one of the workmen and he figured out a way to cut the piece into two parts that could be fitted together to fill specifications. Can you do it?

poetic puzzles

Each verse below conceals the name of a sea food with the letters in proper consecutive order. The answers will be found on the Classified Page.

XXVIII

Two cowboys terrified a town
Out on the western plains;
'Tis just before the Spanish war,
Ere law and order reigns.

They shot at every home and store,
And yes, they even dared
To wreck a church and synagogue,
And frantic rabbi scared.

Two posers gathered in a bar
And overcame their fear,
With rope and guns and dynamite
Enough to stun a deer.

And when the cowboys came to drink,
The wild and woolly sobs,
Terrible vengeance came their way
At hands of both the mobs.

Conditions on the planet Venus
Are so nearly like those on earth
That the two planets are spoken
Of as sisters.

The Mixing Bowl

By ANN MEREDITH

Do not overdo reducing excess weight until you begin the latter, you have offended dietetic laws until your lack of health and beauty begin shouting it from the rooftops, and your friends begin asking you if you are sick, if you have been sick, or are thinking of seeking a change of climate. No diet is safe when it removes fat faster than pounds each week while soft fat is melting away, or more than three-fourths of a pound when the soft fat has been removed.

Our Safe and Sane reducing diet is safe, gentle in its action, pleasing to live upon, and all that such a diet should be. You may have a free copy by writing for it, enclosing with your request a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Eat and Grow Slim Menus

Breakfast

1-2 grapefruit without sugar, or 2 cooked prunes with juice
3 tablespoons any cooked cereal with

*1 coddled egg with
1-4 pat butter
1 cup coffee with 1-4 cup hot skimmed milk, no sugar
Calory total — 400.
Add toast, jam and choice of breakfast beverages to the diet breakfast to convert into the family meal.

Luncheon

*1 cup tomato and chicken broth
*Bacon and tomato sandwich
Pot of clear tea
Calory total—225.
Just make enough sandwiches, and the meal will be o.k. with the family.

Dinner

1* cup oyster broth
*Baked halibut in tomato sauce.. (medium serving)
*String beans, peasant style, 1 cup
*Grapefruit, orange and avocado salad, with diet dressing
Tea or coffee, clear
Calory total—515.
A dessert, bread and butter complete this meal for the family.

The Starred Recipes

CODDLED EGGS: Drop eggs into rapidly boiling water, take off fire at once, cover and let stand from 8 to 10 minutes. TOMATO-CHICKEN BROTH: Mix a can of chicken broth with 1 cup of tomato cocktail juice, bring to a boil, and season. BACON AND TOMATO SANDWICH: Toast thinly cut slices of dark bread, cover with two short lengths of crisp bacon, slices of fresh tomato, diet or oil mayonnaise, and a lettuce leaf. Put on top slice and cut diagonally. OYSTER BROTH: For each cup of broth, chop 2 oysters and scald them with a spoonful of buttersalt and celery salt. Add to hot skimmed milk. Baked HALIBUT: Cut halibut in small serving slices, roll in milk and crumbs, dot with butter and bake quickly to brown top. Pour a can of diluted tomato soup around fish and bake slowly to finish. STRING BEANS: Slice each bean lengthwise and heat with a little grated onion, salt, pepper and butter. Add finely shredded lettuce and cook until it wilts. FRUIT SALAD: Peel the fruits with sharp knife, quarter and slice thin. On lettuce arrange a half grapefruit and a half orange, sliced, with 4 slices of avocado dividing the piles. Serve with diet or regulation French dressing.

Au revoir until Monday.

JIMMY FIDLER — in — HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 20 — Idol chatter: Does Dolores Del Rio have her beautiful feet because she runs around the house barefoot, or vice versa? The urge is almost uncontrollable to spell Myrna Loy with a "J" since her happy marriage. Sound alike: Jean Arthur and Connie Boswell. Roscoe Karn's elegant crack: "I know a star who has had her face lifted so often, she can't bend her knees!" Secret out of school: Ann Sothern holds her breath when she kisses Gene Raymond, she dislikes him so. If anyone coughs or sneezes on a Grace Moore set, out he goes (but if Grace coughs, to bed she goes). Add onomatopoeic names: Blondell. If you so much as snap on the living room lights, John Barrymore turns profile. When a set is drafty, Carole Lombard demands that a hot studio light be directed her way. Will the expected Jack Oakie heir's first greeting be: "Is this my father?" Mrs. Temple refused a writer permission to quote Shirley because the same scribbler had done a neat piece on Jane Withers. Impressionistic drawing of Nelson Eddy: Choir boy singing at a beer bust to raise money for Foreign Missions. If we could cure Hollywood hams with hickory, there might be less bad taste. Not much more than a year ago,

Bob Burns was fired by a local radio program because he was getting no laughs. Ambling along Wilshire boulevard the other morning, I saw Clark Gable guide his long grey roadster into one of those ornate World's Fairs. There were fewer than a dozen people in sight at the moment. The station attendant was busy, so Clark bent to the task of putting air in his tires. Within three minutes (I will swear to this) there must have been two hundred fans clustered around the star in a close-packed mass. While I watched and laughed at him from the safety of my own car, Gable sweated and signed autographs. "Some day," he barked at me, when at last he broke loose, "I'm going to see you in a den of lions—and it's going to be the funniest sight of my life!"

OLIVE HEIGHTS CITRUS MEN IN ANNUAL PARLEY

OLIVE, Feb. 20.—Net payments to Growers of the Olive Heights Citrus association after all expenses had been deducted amounted to $541,477.31 including revolving funds, according to a report submitted to members of the association by A. E. Hughes, secretary and manager, at an annual meeting held yesterday at the parish hall of St. Paul's Lutheran church. A total of 336,756 field boxes were delivered to the packing plant. The sum of $85,264.42 was paid to local labor.

"Shipments this season amounted to 406 carloads of fruit east and an equivalent of 113 cars marketed as loose and juice fruit through the Citrus Distributing plant in Los Angeles," said Hughes.

"While the returns per box were higher this season than last, the grower return on an average was less per acre. This was due mostly to the severe wind of October 22, 1935 which reduced the crop 46.6 per cent as compared to last season and severely damaged the balance of the fruit left on the trees. This resulted in an average grower return per acre which was only slightly above his cost of production."

"The canned orange juice was a big help to this association this season. Fourteen and 38 hundreds per cent of our crop was of these extremely small sizes, or ponies, which went to canned juice. The market on canned juice fruit started out at $20 per ton and was advanced as the season progressed to $40 per ton and better."

"Had it not been for our own by-product plant, the price of juice fruit never would have advanced to this figure. The juice companies in order to get juice fruit had to pay this price because our plant could handle all of our juice fruit and return us the prevailing prices. Much of the fruit sent to our by-product plant was used in the soft drink field for beverage bases."

Speakers were C. E. Skiles, manager of the Orange County Fruit exchange, James O. Cook, secretary of the California Fruit Growers exchange, and Henry T. Green, representative of the American Fruit and Produce Auction association. The latter presented motion pictures of the auction method of selling fruit and produce.

BROADCAST HEARD BY CONGREGATION

ORANGE, Feb. 20.—Taking part in a world wide meeting held by Methodists in 50 countries, members of the First Methodist church heard a broadcast by E. Stanley Jones at 6:30 p. m. Reflections

Copyrighted 1936

By R. E. WAGNER

Washington's Birthday, February 22nd

February 22nd deserves more than perfunctory acknowledgment. Two hundred five years ago a baby was ushered into this world. He was no different than any other child in appearance, the difference was in what that baby did with his life after he was able to discriminate.

Washington did not have more advantages than you or I, perhaps not as many, but he did make the most of those which were available to him.

He did not whimper or whine when the going was tough, he stuck it out. He was not an opportunist but made his destiny; his life had as many disappointments as ours but they did not overwhelm him, he simply went around them and continued on his way to fame and glory.

The moral I draw from Washington's life is simply this—men start equal but finish on the ladder of fame and glory according to the use each makes of his capabilities.

LOUISIANA SCANDAL ROCKS 'HEARST ATHLETIC CLUB'

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—(Associated Press) The purpose of the current move to ditch Max Schmeling and take a Braddock-Louis fight to Chicago is to give Jacobs and the Hearst A. C. control of the heavyweight championship.

Of course, you know what Jacobs' Beach is. It's that little strip of cigarette-littered paving running along West 49th street past M. Strauss Jacobs' combined ticket scalping and promotional offices. Here all the boxing lads gather to bask in the sunshine of M. Jacobs' smile.

But there is no smile these days. It has been blown off by the gale of walls sweeping up from dear old New Orleans, where Jack Phillips, alias Jack Willis, failed to carry out instructions.

Everything went along swimmingly for Mike Jacobs and the Hearst newspapers' prize fight department as long as they remained in their own league. New York

HEARST A. C. WANTS TITLE

The purpose of the current move to ditch Max Schmeling and take a Braddock-Louis fight to Chicago is to give Jacobs and the Hearst A. C. control of the heavyweight championship.

Everything might have gone along serenely for Jacobs and the Hearst A. C. had they been content to remain in their own territory and been satisfied with a lion's share of the swag.

Their present headache is due to their wanting all of it. Jacobs and the Hearst A. C. moved into other cities, freezing out local promoters.

They started to tie up every promising heavyweight. The blow-off came in the case of Jack Torrance. An old lightweight, Herb Brodie, saw the possibilities of the giant shotputter in the main event of mangling mugs.

Naturally, Brodie's first step was in the direction of Jacobs and the will stand for anything, they say.

It was when Jacobs and the Hearst A. C. branched out into the hinterlands that the trouble began.

The expose of the build-up of Jack Torrance may serve a good purpose. It may result in Jacobs and the Hearst A. C. having to confine their activities to Broadway, which is used to their methods.

SCALPER STEPS OUT

Jacobs, the old ticket scalper, stepped out as a promoter three or four years ago when the Hearst A. C. couldn't get what it wanted from Madison Square Garden.

The fact that Madison Square Garden was a reputable and long established organization trying to make an elaborate arena pay didn't bother Jacobs and the Hearst A. C. Jacobs wanted first crack at tickets, which he sells for two or three times what they are worth, and the Hearst A. C. sought control of the best boxing business and the power and everything else that goes with it. It was a natural tie-up.

It was when Joe Louis came along that Jacobs and the Hearst A. C. saw an opportunity to seize the world heavyweight championship and build a fistic empire around it as did Tex Rickard, who built Madison Square Garden on its merits.

Nate Lewis built Louis in the Chicago stadium, but what chance did any ordinary promoter have two years ago when Jacobs rolled into Detroit with two or three carloads of New York boxing writers. Louis tackled Nate Brown that night, and his handlers were swept away by the big shot and show from Manhattan, and Nate Lewis was left flatter than a broken bloke with bad arches.

America's finest 3-year-olds in training go postward Monday in the third running of the $50,000-added Santa Anita Derby—first major classic of 1937 on the U. S. turf. Out of the dazzling array of young horses—the pick of the east and west—may come the winner of the Kentucky Derby and the 3-year-old champion of the year.

Santa Anita's "handle" probably will soar to more than a million dollars and a crowd of some 50,000 is expected to jam the course for the blue ribbon classic which has been doubled in value this year to attract the finest 3-year-olds of the land.

While a dozen or so candidates hold a chance for victory, the whirl of fortune's wheel may play a part in determining the winner. Racing luck must ride with the winner. The largest field ever assembled at the track is expected to line up for the Derby—some 25 starters. One bad break in the running and the chances are slender for a horse to recover lost ground and weave his way through the pack.

Favoritism will likely be split by Norman Church's Sir Oracle and Mrs. William Furst's Gerald, both cracking colts which qualified impressively for the engagement Monday. Both are at the very top of their form.

Case Ace, the future book favorite, has fallen by the wayside and is not expected to start. He is not up to a mile and a sixteenth and appears to be a top sprinter, and not a router.

The Derby will be broadcast over er the Mutual and NBC chains—a nation-wide hookup having been made.

Supporting the Derby will be an excellent card which includes a special $2500 handicap at one mile and one-eighth which is expected to bring out several contenders for the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap.

Time Supply was given a mile-and-a-quarter workout yesterday for the Santa Anita Handicap, and although his connections expressed satisfaction over the trial, many observers consider it a dull performance for a horse of his unquestioned class. He went the distance in 2:06 1/5, and the last three-eighths—just where a long work should be good—was slow.

He came off the track sound but he looked "kinky" in front when he was being "cooled out." Trainer Ted Horning, declared, however, that he always walks that way because of muscle soreness.

Jockey Alfred Robertson will ride him in the event the Milky Way Stable's Sangreal does not start. Should the latter go in the big race, another rider will be selected.

Time Supply still is regarded as a sure starter, but his chances seem remote to this writer in anything but deep mud where his class would make him a factor.

Balking, the pride of the Vanderbilt 2-year-old division, narrowly averted serious injury yesterday morning when he hooked her hind legs over the rail and skinned her hocks. Trainer R. J. H. Stotter made a thorough examination and said it wasn't serious and that she would be back on the track in a few days.

The following statistics will give you a breath-taking idea of the play at Santa Anita this season, despite the worst winter weather California has ever experienced.

The average daily "handle" for the first 41 days was $462,516 as compared to $435,378 for the entire season last year, and $244,579 the first meeting. The total for the first 41 days was $18,963,187, or three million dollars more than the total for the entire first meeting of 66 days.

Tustin To Play Pasadena

Class Meet Monday Brings Out New Saint Track Crop

They're running the Derby up at Santa Anita Monday, and they're going to run some interesting races down at Poly field the same day.

Scheduled at 3 p. m. is the first-half of Santa Ana high school's open inter-class meet between sophomores, juniors and seniors—with The Register's perpetual crop going to the winners. The second part of the competition it booked Wednesday afternoon.

The inter-class is always an intriguing affair because it brings out of hiding former junior high school athletes who'll be the backbone of future Saint track teams, some "dark horses," one or two transfers. It also indicates whether the veterans have improved since last spring.

Coach Reese (Pinky) Greene will run off the following events Monday: 70-yard hurdles, 50-yard dash, 660-yard run, 150-yard dash, pole vault, shot put and broad jump. All races have been shortened. The rest of the events come up

Wednesday. On Friday, Coach Greene has slated a special meet for Class B and C boys, most of whom will be in the "open" competition, too. Five places will be counted in both meets; ribbons go to one-two-three finishers.

Considerable interest has been riveted on the 50 and 150 yard dashes. The Saints appear to have some fairly promising sprinters with Harry Adams shaping up as the No. 1 man. Adams is likely to get spirited opposition from Dwight Nott, "Doc" Lutz, Junior Mulvihill, Richard Ladiges and Pete Partida—to say nothing of Sophomore Jerome Duffy, up from Frances Willard junior high school, and Wayne Pique, who fullbacked for the Class B football squad. Duffy ran 10.8 at Willard, beating Lutz once last year.

Among the sophomores who'll be watched are Bob Fries, who twice high-jumped 5:9 at Julia Lathrop; Bob Pollard, Howard Elliott, Stanley Jiles, Robert Steward and Donald Dietler.

TILLERS GIVEN SCARE BUT NIP ANAHEIM, 19-17

Champions of the Orange league after some unexpected rough going with Anaheim, 19-17, Tustin's resourceful basketball team today was assigned to meet Pasadena next week-end in a first round playoff game for the Southern California high school title.

With Tustin's coach, Bill Cole, there in the role of scout, Pasadena clinched the San Gabriel Valley league crown yesterday with an easy victory over Jordan of Long Beach. The Tustin-Pasadena contest is scheduled at Pasadena but Tustin officials said they would make an effort to have the contest switched to their Stanley gymnasium.

Tustin had to call on everything it had to subdue Anaheim's improved quintet in the county conference finale at Orange last night. Anaheim led virtually all the way and when Sam Francis, the Tillers' leading marksman, went out on fouls soon after the start of the second half, it seemed certain that a third game would be necessary.

The teams were deadlocked at 6-6 in the first quarter. Playing with desperate aggressiveness, Anaheim moved ahead in the second quarter after Chauncy Woodrome dropped in two beautiful goals. By half-time it was 11-7 and after three quarters 17-15, an angle shot by Paul Francis keeping the Tillers in the ball game just before the gun.

Carrying on for Brother Sam, the smaller Francis tied the score at 17-17 early in the fourth period. A few minutes later—after a scramble under Anaheim's basket—Vic Linker pumped in the deciding two points for Tustin. Thoroughly scared, the Farmers were content to "freeze" the ball when they got it after that. As it was, Woodrome barely missed three or four long shots that would have tied the count.

Woodrome appeared the best man on the floor, although Larry Monroy, Tustin's star guard, again made life miserable for Ted DeVelbiss, the Anaheim center who averaged close to 15 points a game this year. DeVelbiss made two points last night; in the first game he was limited to one.

COGSWELL TO DIRECT PUPILS ON ABBEY HOUR

The Musical Memory Hour program to be presented at Melrose Abbey Sunday afternoon February 21, will be under the direction of Professor Horatio Cogswell, who is featuring a group of his talented pupils.

Professor Cogswell is one of Southern California's outstanding voice instructors and is Chairman of the Voice Department of the University of Southern California, School of Music. Many of his graduate students are now prominent in radio and national musical activities.

Two students from Orange are included on this program, Miss Clara Pitschen, soprano, and a lovely light lyric soprano voice and Marvin Everett whose rich baritone voice has won many admirers.

Dorothy Winifred Hall, contralto, Esther Stanford, soprano and Doane Erwin, tenor are talented students in the U.S.C. School of Music.

Henrietta Felts will act as piano accompanist and Charlotte Hollister Revely, prominent and talented musician will be at the console of the Cathedral organ. Mrs. Revely will open the program playing "Minuetto" by Gullmunt.

The program as arranged by Prof. Cogswell follows: "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte) and "Le Reve de Des Grieux" (Massenet) by Doane Erwin, tenor. "Ninety First Psalm" (MacDermid) and "The Prayer Perfect" (Stenson) by Clara Pitschen, soprano. "Goin' Home" (New World Symphony) by Doane Erwin, tenor. "Pavane" (Cesar Franck) by Marvin Everett, baritone. "Un bel di" (Madama Butterfly) Puccini and "Nocturne" (Curran) by Esther Stanford, soprano.

Dorothy Winifred Hall, contralto, will offer three numbers "Still wie die Nacht" (Bohm); "Dedication" (Franz) and "Lullaby" (Brahms).

KEN Murray SAYS:

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Can you imagine the thrill of excitement in society circles when it was rumored that the Duke of Windsor and Mrs. Simpson plan to leave Europe after their marriage and may possibly spend their honeymoon in the United States?

Somehow Edward seems to make marrying the woman he loves as easy as falling off a throne.

For her troupe, I suppose Wallis will have to be satisfied with those little flat hats the girls are wearing over here this year. . . . You know, the ones without the crown.

Naturally, if they do come here they will find a big welcome as most of the American public is with them. . . . After all, Edward was treated with no more consideration than a Supreme Court Justice.

Of course, if Wallis is lucky enough to bring an ex-King of Britain to the United States Uncle Sam may send her back to see if she can do anything about those loans.

PUSSY WILLIAMS DO NOT NEED BRIGHT COLORS IN ORDER TO ATTRACT BEES!

THEY APPEAR SO EARLY IN THE SPRING THAT THEY HAVE NO COMPETITION FROM OTHER FLOWERS.

TAME MICE ARE BRED IN MORE THAN TWENTY-ONE DIFFERENT SHADES.

To describe an object as "mouse color" is being very vague, for with the modern trend in mouse breeding, fanciers now produce these animals in colors ranging from the original browns and blacks, to whites, blues, creams, lilacs, plums, silvers, variegated, etc.

BELL RINGERS TO PLAY IN ANAHEIM

The Mason Bell Ringers, musical evangelists known throughout the United States for their novel sacred concerts and evangelistic services, will present a series of gospel (good news) services at the White Temple Methodist church, corner Philadelphia and Broadway, Anaheim, beginning tomorrow.

The Rev. and Mrs. Benson Mason are the Mason Bell Ringers. They will conduct services every evening, except Saturday, at 7:30, concluding on Sunday, February 28. A program of unusual interest has been planned for each night.

Sacred music will be played on some or all of the following instruments: Swiss hand bells, musical glasses, singing saw, magical vials, triple chimes, staff bells and golden vibraphone.

The Rev. Mr. Mason has been a pastor for several years and for the last five years has been devoting his time to evangelism through the medium of music and sermon. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the services. Beginning Tuesday, a program of music, magic, contests and object lessons will be given for the children at the church from 3:30 to 4:30, and every afternoon except Saturday.

Picnics and Reunions

Following this will be a play, "Robert and Mary," a story of the early days of the missionary Moffats in South Africa. This will be directed by Estelle Card Beaman, and is expected to be a fitting climax to the six weeks study of Africa.

Exhibits and tea in the parlor will be sponsored by the Woman's society, whose president is Miss Lula Minter.

HAT CHECK GIRL DENIES WEDDING

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—(UP)—While David Rubinoff returned to his violin, Justice Salvatore Contino sought today to learn more about the purported marriage of Blonde Peggy Garcia, who is demanding $500,000 from the musician, in Roanoke, Va., 12 years ago.

Defense attorneys produced a marriage certificate which they said showed that the former night club hat-check girl became a bride on March 6, 1925, and that her mother and father had signed the document.

The only marriage of her life, Peggy protested, was the one she made six months ago in New York. —long after she said Rubinoff won her love in a Philadelphia hotel and jilted her.

Justice Contino recessed the trial until Tuesday when the defense hoped to have Peggy's father and uncle in court to bolster its charge.

FRIENDSHIP MEET HOUR IS CHANGED

The order of usual events has been changed somewhat for the final session of the Adventure in World Friendship, to be held in the First Baptist church Sunday night. The adult class, taught by Mrs. W. H. Harrison, will meet at 7:00, instead of later in the evening. This will be followed by the Round Table discussion led by the Rev. Harry E. Owings.

At 7:50 the primary children will give an exercise called "David and Goliath," a study in black and white, directed by their superintendent, Mrs. Charles Rowland. They will also sing two spirituals, "Old Ark's a-Moving," and "Gitt on Board, Little Children," directed by Miss Laura Joiner.

Following this will be a play, "Robert and Mary," a story of the early days of the missionary Moffats in South Africa. This will be directed by Estelle Card Beaman, and is expected to be a fitting climax to the six weeks study of Africa.

OPEN REVIVALS IN ORANGE TUESDAY

Coming to Orange for a six-day evangelistic campaign, the Fox Evangelistic party from Washington, D. C., will open a revival series next Tuesday at the Pentecostal Assembly, Orange street and Maple avenue. Services will start each evening at 7:30 and will continue through Sunday, February 23.

The party consists of Evangelist Lorne F. Fox and his sister, Ethel M. Fox, Miss Ruth Dolberg, Edwin Wirkala and the elder Mr. Fox. The party comes to Orange from Los Angeles after a series of meetings at Bethel Temple. The musical program of the party during their stay in Orange will consist of solos, duets, vocal solos, duets and trios, guitar numbers; violin and accordion solos. Both the Rev. and Miss Fox bring testimony of miraculous healings.

A cordial invitation has been extended the general public to attend the meetings each evening.

MILITARY BALL BOY ON CYCLE DISCUSSED BY DISABLED VETS

Plans for a potluck dinner, in- itiation of a large class of recruits and co-operation with the Jack Fisher post, disabled American veterans in that organization's annual military ball were discussed last night at the regular meeting of the Ernest Kellogg post Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The post will co-operate with the disabled veterans and will send the post colors to the ball room on that night.

On March 26 the post will sponsor a potluck dinner at which time the police department first aid squad will attend and give a demonstration.

The South Gate post degree team will be in Santa Ana on the night of April 2 and conduct the initiation of a large class of recruits and present ritual work of the organization.

It also was announced last night that the post auxiliary is planning to sponsor a public card party the night of March 12.

Ernest L. Fritcher of Garden Grove was taken into the organization last night and a large delegation of members of the Orange post, headed by Commander S. L. Lewis attended the meeting. Other members of the delegation were: Joe Saxon, Abe Grudt, Walter DeLugue, A. E. Maties and Glenn Reck.

YOUNG BUSINESS MEN OF C. C. NAME SUB-COMMITTEE

Appointment of sub-committee chairman for the Young Business Men's committee of the chamber of commerce was announced today by William Croddy, general chairman of the group.

Dale Decker was named chairman of the aviation sub-committee and Fred McCandless will head the safety group.

Organization of the Young Business Men's group was perfected this year by directors of the chamber for the purpose of interesting the younger business men of the city in community affairs. Aviation and safety, two of the most important phases of the year's program were turned over to the group for the year.

The first problem to be studied by the safety group will be the city's parking problem. McCandless said that the first step his group will make will be to invite opinions on the problem from everyone in the city. With these opinions before them members of the group will make an exhaustive survey of the problem and attempt to reach a solution.

SEEK KILLERS OF UNION OFFICIAL

TEANECK, N. J., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Authorities searched today for the men who killed Norman Redwood, 44-year-old union official, when he drove up to his home last night.

Redwood, business manager of the Compressed Air Workers' union of New York and an authority on compressed air construction, had been leading a strike of 400 tunnel excavators employed on a New York sewer project financed with federal relief funds.

Austin Muldoon and James Lynch, union officers, were held by police as material witnesses. Prosecutor John J. Breslin said they had furnished information linking "a well-known New York contractor" to the case and that they had told of several threats upon Redwood's life.

BOY ON CYCLE BADLY INJURED

When Walter MacFarlane, 14-year-old son of L. W. MacFarlane, electrical dealer, of 617 East Walnut street, fell from his bicycle about 2:40 a. m. today in front of 901 East First street, he suffered concussion, cuts and bruises for which he is being treated at Santa Ana Valley hospital today.

The front wheel of Walter's bicycle came loose from the frame-work and Walter catapulted over the handlebars, onto his head, city police reported.

Morris Madiek, truck driver, was held at the Occidental jail today, on suspicion of hit-and-run driving, after a collision in San Diego county which overturned a Greyhound bus, injuring 15 persons, one seriously, last night. Mary Beard, 65, South Occidental, was in critical condition from severe chest injuries and others were shaken and bruised. Madiek was captured in San Clemente after allegedly being chased north on Coast highway by Harold Lagoon, Los Angeles motorist who witnessed the crash. Madiek was returned to Occidental and booked at the jail. Highway patrolmen said the truck struck the bus head-on.

When Kenneth Werner, 421 East Palmyra, Orange, was knocked from his bicycle in the 1000-block, South Main, last evening, by a car operated by Gladys Wright, 34, 929 Oak street, Santa Ana, he suffered scratches on face and bruised hip, police said.

W. R. STAATS FIRM OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

The fiftieth anniversary of William R. Staats company, the first investment house chartered by the state of California, is being commemorated today, according to William C. Smith, Santa Ana resident manager of the company.

The firm's first office was opened in Pasadena February of 1887. Today the firm has five offices throughout the state including Santa Ana, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Riverside. Through the half century that has passed, the executives of William R. Staats company have played an important part in the financial and business life of Southern California. Members of the firm have been identified with the organization and development of many leading corporations in California and the southwest.

The founder, William R. Staats, was president of the company until 1929 when he became chairman of the board of directors. At his death in 1928, Mr. Staats was a director of many corporations including Union Oil Company of California and Southern California Edison company.

The firm's underwriting experience of the William R. Staats company came shortly after the firm was founded in 1887 with the purchase of an issue of $162,000 city of Pasadena bonds. Through-out its entire 50 years of business, the financing of California municipal projects has been a major activity of the firm.

CHECK RECORD OF MATTSON SUSPECT

HAZELHURST, Miss., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Federal agents today held Julian Moscowitz, 35, as a suspect in the kidnap-murder of 19-year-old Charles Mattson, Tacoma, Wash., pending outcome of fingerprint examinations.

Police Chief Phil Massa said that Kocewich answered descriptions of the kidnaper. He said Kocewich will be held until his fingerprints are checked with Washington files. Kocewich was arrested last Wednesday on suspicions by local police. Federal agents were immediately notified.

As the investigation progresses he checks the possible motives for each of the ship's passengers. Mrs. REGINALD JOCELYN, none, so far as known; COUNT ROSSEN, DENI, grudge motive against Blane; Rockeavage, strong motive of financial gain; BISHOP OF BUDA, strong motive since Blane knew of his unsavory past.

LADY BLANCK, strong motive of financial gain; KNOTHE HAYASHI, strong motive of financial gain; REGINALD JOCELYN, strong motive of financial gain; MISS ROCKSAVAGE, none, apparently. Only the ship's crew and NICHOLAS STODART, Blane's secretary, are conclusively ruled out on sound alibis. Stodart was in the ship's lounge all during the period in which Blane obviously was murdered.

At Hazelhurst, Blane's deductions, Rockeavage appears with his physician, offering proof of his presence in his cabin when the crime was committed. The lounge steward corroborated this testimony.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXII DETECTIVE OFFICER KETTERING'S FIFTH REPORT, CONTINUED.

I THEN examined the contents of the wastepaper baskets, which had been removed from each of the parties' cabins on the morning following the crime, and three items of interest emerged from this examination.

In the refuse from Count Pogodin's cabin I found 31 cigarette ends, 25 of these are Chesterfields, but the other 6 are an English brand called Players, and four out of these six have obvious traces of lipstick on them.

In the refuse from Miss Rockeavage's cabin I found a twist of hair which had obviously been removed from a comb. Most of this was golden hair, which undoubtedly comes from the head of Miss Ferri Rockeavage, but mingled with it there are a few short, black curly hairs, which definitely suggest that a man had used that comb after her.

Among the refuse from the Bishop of Bude's cabin I found one match torn out of a booklet of matches, upon which is printed in block letters the words "Adlon-Claridge."

I then re-examined various members of the party.

WEAVERS, SPINNERS ARE NEEDED FOR NRS

Jobs are open for woolen mill weavers and spinners, it was announced today by Charles Fallert, district manager of the National Reemployment Service in Santa Ana.

At the present time, said Fallert, all workers registered for such employment are working, and more are needed. Fallert requested that anyone who has had experience in that line of work should come to his office, 208 Federal building, Santa Ana, and the job opportunity will be given.

This, said Fallert, is only one example of the service that the National Reemployment Service is striving to render, and shows that the service is not only trying to find jobs in private industry here, but also is on the alert for jobs of every kind outside of this district.

Register Staff Back to Work

For the first time in three weeks The Register had a complete staff on duty in the news room. All staff men who have been out with influenza had recovered sufficiently to report for duty. For the past three weeks The Register has been functioning with four and sometimes more members of the news staff absent because of illness.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Investigating the murder of BOLITHO BLANE, British banker, aboard CAROLINE, SAVAGES' yacht, Detective Officer KETTERING runs into a maze of conflicting clues.

As the investigation progresses he checks the possible motives for each of the ship's passengers. SCHOOL GIRL, 14 BRIDE, IN NORTH

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., Feb. 20.—(UP)—Violet Hale's age is provided Grass Valley with a debatable subject today while the girl and John Valceschini, 22-year-old restaurant worker, assured friends they know their married life will be happy.

When Valceschini and his "child bride" applied for a marriage license the girl gave her age as 18. Records at the school where she was a seventh-grade student, however, indicated she is 14. While her mother was insisting 18 was the girl's correct age, a sister said she was 16.

While others debated, the lovers were married at the Congregational church.

The girl, who met Valceschini, "the only boy she ever went around with," three months ago, said: "Being married is the most important thing to me right now. I don't think I'm too young. I know I'll be happy."

PACIFIC MUTUAL QUIZ POSTPONED

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 20.—(UP)—Further legislative investigation of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company will be postponed indefinitely. Assemblyman Leon M. Donihue said today when he announced he had excused all witnesses except E. Forrest Mitchell, former insurance commissioner, "until further notice."

He pointed out that the HOLC had completed its biggest job in this respect, but added that there still was great need for the organization in varied fields akin to the original aim of the corporation.

Taft's talk was one of a series that are presented each week to members of the reality board.

CRIME FILE ON BOLITHO BLANE

P. J.: I did not say so.

K.: Wait a minute, though. I'm going to put you wise to something which may make you think differently before you burn your boats. The bird you know as Count Posodini is actually "Slick" Daniels; con man and card sharp. Here's his police record. Take a look.

P. J.: I have nothing to add to my previous statement.

K.: Oh, Lordy! Let me put it to you another way, then. Mr. Rockeavage and the ship's doctor both saw your husband still unchanged in the passage at 8:10. So your bluff about his being in his bath at 7:45 is now quite useless. Get that?

P. J.: Yes.

K.: On the other hand there is very strong presumptive evidence that Posodini did in Blane. As "Slick" is a known criminal that makes the presumption doubly strong. Now, you seem a decent sort of girl. Just because a man has a criminal record behind him you're surely not going to see him sent to the chair for a murder he didn't do, if you can stop it, are you?

P. J.: I see. Yes, that does make a big difference, doesn't it? All right, then, I was in the Count's cabin. When we came below at a quarter to eight I went in to borrow a book and I sat there talking to him for the best part of half an hour.

K.: Then, why the heck didn't you say so to begin with?

P. J.: Isn't that obvious?

K.: Yes, because your husband told you not to. Did he know where you'd been?

P. J.: I intended that he should. I suppose I might as well tell you everything now. My husband and I haven't been getting on very well lately and this trip has brought matters to a head. When he and Ferri started throwing eyes at each other on the first day out from New York I decided to start a party of my own with the Count.

I knew quite well that I could take care of myself and I thought that, if I spent half an hour alone with the Count in his cabin, before changing that night, Reggie would be certain to ask why I was so late. As it was I had all my trouble for nothing. He was so occupied himself that he never even thought to ask where I had been.

K.: I understand.

P. J.: I wouldn't have told you this unless you'd had proof already that he didn't come down till ten past eight.

K.: Thank you, Mrs. Jocelyn. (To Be Continued)

MRS. LESLIE IS GRANTED TIME

Mrs. Catherine Leslie, widow of Charles C. L. Leslie, was granted an extension of time yesterday by Superior Judge G. K. Scovel, in which to file an appeal from the court's ruling of January 11, when final judgment was granted the Federal Finance company holding that the Leslies had failed to redeem their 60-acre ranch, previously foreclosed by the finance company under a $57,000 trust deed.

The court had issued an interlocutory decree June 11, 1936, allowing the Leslies six months in which to repurchase their ranch from the finance company.

CURWOOD FILM 'GOLD DIGGERS' OPENS SUNDAY AND 'RAINBOW' AT BROADWAY START SUNDAY

"God's Country and the Woman," stirring drama of the North woods based on the novel by James Oliver Curwood, has its initial showing here tomorrow when it opens at the Broadway. Entirely filmed in technicolor, this outdoor screen epic has been acclaimed by critics to be the most perfect color film ever brought to the screen.

George Brent and Beverly Roberts share starring honors in the picture that has Barton MacLane, Robert Barrat, Alan Hale, El Brendel, Joseph King and other prominent featured players in the cast.

The story concerns that of a girl who is left a vast amount of timber land by her father and tries desperately to run the lumber camp as he did. There are many obstacles, chief among them, a rival timber baron who would force her to sell. Even her foreman is deep in a plot to acquire the valuable property. Brent is seen as the brother of the rival owner, who on making a casual visit to the property discovers the trickery and is about to denounce his elder relative when he is shamelessly and returned to the woods where the lusty drama of love and hate runs its course. There are compelling scenes of a runaway log train, awe inspiring scenes of blasting log jams and a romance to enliven the proceedings. "God's Country and the Woman" is a rare treat in screen fare.

WHITE HUNTER OPENS TUESDAY AT WEST COAST

A man and a woman trying to hate while fierce longing flames in their hearts is the thrilling theme of Twentieth Century-Fox's amazing drama of savage passions "White Hunter," which opens Tuesday at the West Coast theatre.

Warner Baxter and June Lang, who created such a sensation in "The Road to Glory" are brilliantly cast in this drama.

Assisting the stars is an excellent supporting cast which includes Gail Patrick, Allison Skipworth, Wilfrid Lawson and George Hassell. Baxter is seen as a colorful hunter who accepts a commission to guide a big game expedition through a strangely wild country. Included in the party are Wilfrid Lawson, a powerful munitions magnate, Gail Patrick, his wayward wife, and lovely June Lang his daughter by a former marriage; Allison Skipworth, a shrewish hypochondriac and Hassell, her hen-pecked spouse. A tense, heavy laden atmosphere oppresses the entire group, the picture dealing with their extreme hatred of one another with disaster falling many times on the queer group. In one of the most dramatic climaxes filmed in recent years, the principal characters clash with furious force as the picture reaches its stirring end.

The second feature on this exceptionally attractive double program brings Lee Tracy back to the screen in "Criminal Lawyer," Margot Grahame has the feminine lead opposite the dynamic Tracy with Eduardo Cinnelli who will be long remembered for his gang leader part in "Winter Set," lending excellent support. Eric Rhodes is another prominent screen personality featured in this story of the underworld.

"AFTER THE THIN MAN" ENDS TONIGHT

Concluding a very successful four day engagement at Walker's new theater, "After the Thin Man," starring William Powell and Myrna Loy, and "Three Men on a Horse" featuring Frank McHugh, will close tonight with a complete showing of the two features after 8:45 to accommodate those who have been unable to attend the earlier performances.

"After the Thin Man," a sequel to the very popular film "The Thin Man," features the same couple as Mr. and Mrs. Charles, a carefree couple who do their sleuthing amid the sinister shadows of San Francisco's Chinatown, yet live a life of pleasure and enjoyment with their friends on exclusive Nob Hill. The snappy dialogue and the unraveling of mystery, will keep you laughing and in suspense from start to finish.

Frank McHugh as the featured player in "Three Men on a Horse," portrays a timid greeting card post who shows uncanny judgment in picking the winner of horse races. His choices are only for his own amusement until overheard by some small time gamblers who benefit by his "dope." When his choices are no longer forthcoming the mercurial starts.

ATTRACTIONS AT LOCAL THEATERS

Beverly Roberts and George Brent in a scene from James Oliver Curwood's robust story of the great Northwest filmed entirely in gorgeous technicolor coming to the Broadway tomorrow together with "Don't Tell the Wife," a rollicking comedy with Guy Kibbee, Una Merkel and Lynne Overman.

Warner Baxter and June Lang in "White Hunter" coming to the West Coast Monday together with Lee Tracy and Margot Grahame in "Criminal Lawyer."

Coming Attractions

FOX BROADWAY

On the screen at the Broadway this coming Thursday is promised one of the dramatic high lights of the season which introduces a new and brilliant luminary to the screen, Anton Walbrook. Cast in the title role of Jules Verne's immortal classic "Michael Strogoff," courier of the Tsar, Mr. Walbrook, gives an interesting and, at all times, compelling performance.

The supporting cast includes Elizabeth Allen, Margot Grahame, Fay Bainter, Eric Blone, Ed Brophy and Akim Tamiroff, nominee for the Academy of Arts and Sciences award for his characterization in "The General Died at Dawn."

On the same program will be seen a new comedy team, Allison Skipworth and Polly Moran in a mirthful, human story that will hit home with old and young alike, "Two Wise Maids." With the locale laid in one of New York's public schools on the East Side, the drama, humor and heart interest of the story is a delight from the first scene. Miss Skipworth as a teacher of thirty-five years service about to be discharged from the service, the rallying of the pupils, past and present, officialdom in the form of police of the district, a glamorous movie star and the "Champ" of the world breaks down the untruth of the charge and all ends happily to the satisfaction of the audience. A cast of well known players such as Jackie Searl, Lila Lee, Luis Alberni, Frank (Greek) Burns, Donald Woods, Hope Manning and Marcia Mae Jones contribute excellent support. An "Our Gang" comedy "Spooky Hooks" and World News complete the program.

Dick Powell and Joan Blondell, above, are starred in "Gold Diggers of 1937," which opens Sunday at Walker's theater.

Robert Young and Wallace Beery are shown here in a scene from "West Point of the Air" opening at the State theater Sunday.

WALKER'S

Starting next Thursday, Walker's new theater will offer: "That Girl from Paris" starring Lily Pons, Gene Raymond and Jack Oakie and James Gleason and Zasu Pitts in "The Plot Thickens."

Miss Pons descends from the lofty peak of a world-renowned grand opera star to the humble position of a hat check girl as she portrays the title role in "That Girl from Paris."

The demolition, however, still affords the vivacious little prima donna opportunity galore to lift her famous coloratura voice in some songs. She sings some pulsating popular melodies which vary with sparkling effect the operatic aria from "The Barber of Seville" which highlights the climactic sequence of the picture.

In the second feature on the week-end bill, James Gleason and Zasu Pitts enact the roles of Inspector Oscar Piper and Hildegard Withers, his assistant, as they solve the mystery leading to the capture of a gang of white thieves, in the film "The Plot Thickens."

Friday night, in addition to the two features, Walker's will present their Opportunity Night program of eight or more acts of amateur vaudeville. The weekly program, now nearing an end, has been in the form of an elimination with a trip to New York as the final winner's prize.

FOX WEST COAST

Among the long list of outstanding attractions booked to screen at the West Coast theatre is the latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer all-star picture "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney." Based on the play by Frederick Lonsdale and starring no less than three of Hollywood's most famous stars and a runner-up.

"Mrs. Cheyney" opens February 26 as the lead feature on a double program. Joan Crawford, William Powell and Robert Montgomery are the stars with near-star Frank Morgan heading the supporting cast.

The story concerns a young American girl, a glamorous creature who "took" English society, a feminine rascal in league with a super crook (Powell) to steal a valuable necklace. Montgomery, the victim of the contemplated theft is very much in love with the lady, she is in love with Powell. The criminal attempt of the pair is thwarted but only after an amusing and suspense laden film has almost run its course. Hollywood's leading producers have spared nothing in offering this modern version of the Lonsdale play and have surrounded the principals with such sparkling performers as Jessie Ralph, Nigel Bruce, Ralph Forbes, Lamorne Hart, Bonita Hunt and many others. The second feature on the coming program, "Breezing Home," is a fast paced action picture of the race track. William Gargan, Binnie Barnes and Wendy

The program at the State also includes a Three Stooges comedy entitled "Slippery Slicks." "The Village Smithy," a Looney Tune cartoon; chapter 3 of the serial "The Fighting Marines"; and a newsreel. There will be a complete showing of this program after 9:30 tonight to accommodate those who work until late.

Revelations of a rare period in American history distinguishes "Maid of Salem," which deals with mob violence during the Puritan era, now heading a twin bill at the West Coast theatre. With Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray in the starring roles, "Maid of Salem" details agitation over the subject of witchcraft, which was used as a means of averting enemies on the innocent.

It's a tale of super-natural harm that starts two fires of prejudice and cruelty burning in the New England village, which culminates with the wholesale arrests and subsequent trials of those supposedly in communication with "evil spirits." So fierce does this Barrie are cast in the leading roles with Raymond Walburn, Alan Baxter and Alma Kruger in top supporting roles.

STATE

The two day program starting Wednesday will show Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey in "Mummy's Boys" and Irene Hervey and Charles Starrett in "Along Came Love." In "Mummy's Boys" Wheeler and Woolsey take the part of two nit wits who, in helping a scientist and an Egyptian Pharaoh, are trapped in the old King's fatal tomb, menaced by the strange fate that has claimed ten men.

"Along Came Love," is the story of a shopgirl and a young medical student attempting to get married on the meager earnings they are able to earn; she in the basement of a department store and he as a theater door-man after school hours. With the help of more mature friends the romantic comedy comes to a satisfactory ending.

Friday, for two days, the State will show Dick Foran, the singing cowboy, in "Guns of the Pecos," a story dealing with west Texas just after the Civil war and a Princeton educated cowboy's battles with outlaws, guerrillas and Indians which infested the country known as the Pecos.

FOX BROADWAY

Outstanding screen fare is promised for an early showing at the Broadway to include Tyrone Power and Loretta Young in "Love Is News" which will be shown together with Jane Withers' madcap comedy "The Holy Terror," "When Is Your Birthday" starring Joe E. Brown supported by Marian Marsh, Fred Keating and Edgar Kennedy and "Women of Glamour" with Virginia Bruce and Melvyn Douglas.

Of outstanding note will be Grace Moore's latest contribution, "When You're in Love" in which she is supported by Nelson Eddy. Her rendition of "Minnie the Moocher" is said to be a classic. Booth Tarkington's delightful story of boyhood "Penrod and Sam" will be included on the same program. Warner Bros. "Green Light" featuring Margaret Lindsay, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Walter Abel and Henry O'Neil is also due for early showing.

AT STATE TONIGHT

Showing for the last times tonight, at the State theater, "Code of the Range," a Peter B. Kyne story featuring Charles Starrett and Mary Blake, pictures the dashing young cowboy taking the side of a sheep man in a range war with other cattlemen. Starrett's sense of fair play overcomes his desire to fight beside his brother cattle raisers.

The program at the State also includes a Three Stooges comedy entitled "Slippery Slicks." "The Village Smithy," a Looney Tune cartoon; chapter 3 of the serial "The Fighting Marines"; and a newsreel. There will be a complete showing of this program after 9:30 tonight to accommodate those who work until late.

"WEST POINT OF THE AIR" AT STATE SUNDAY

With the shrill scream of zooming airplanes as a blood-stirring background, Wallace Beery comes to the screen of the State theater tomorrow in one of the most startling aviation pictures to date, "West Point of the Air." It was announced by Manager Vic Walker. The film will show for three days.

Filmed almost entirely at famed Randolph Field, Texas, training school for young Army pilots, the picture is a startling revelation of what can be accomplished by men in the air. For the first time on the talking screen every phase of the cadet aviation instruction may be seen by the public.

Scene after scene of roaring speed-packed action shows the development of a young cadet from his entry in the flying course with "ground school" to the time he pilots his own plane in the spectacular aerial reviews.

A romantic interlude in the lives of the cadets provided by Maureen O'Sullivan and Rosalind Russell, who provide two sides to a dramatic triangle that almost results in the death of Wallace Beery, in trying to save his son, Robert Young, from cowardice.

Notable supporting roles in the epic are filled by such outstanding players as Lewis Stone as General Carter, commanding officer of the air field; James Gleason as Joe Bags, as an aviation emchanic who rules his life by astronomy; Russell Hardie as Phil, son of General Carter, who is crippled by a plane accident; Henry Wadsworth, Robert Taylor and Robert Livingston as flying students, and Frank Conroy as an aviation captain.

As the second feature on this program, the State theater is offering "Treasure," a story of the old west, featuring Buck Jones, Shirley Grey and Robert Ellis. Buck Jones' world-famous horse is also featured in the picture.

Chapter 4 of the serial, "The Phantom Rider" completes the program which starts Sunday with continuous shows from 1 p. m. All seats are priced at 15c until 4 p. m.

flame of intolerance become that a single word is sufficient almost to tear a life. It is the first time anything like it has been brought to the screen and that difficult task has been remarkably well done. Supporting Miss Colbert and MacMurray are to be seen in strong character parts, Harvey Stephens, Gale Sondergaard, Edward Ellis, Louise Dresser and the child, Bonita Granville.

The second picture on the program that closes a five day run at the Main street showhouse has George O'Brien, stalwart hero of the outdoors in the title role of "Daniel Boone." The story depicts the migration of some 30 families who set out to carve a new home out of the wilderness which lay beyond the Cumberland mountains. Led by Boone, they begin their epic journey through forests, over rushing rivers and into untracked badlands. Reproduced in striking and romantic detail, are the episodes in the life of the great frontiersman, Boone, as related in the film. Supporting O'Brien are such players as Hechard Angel, John Carradine, Ralph Forbes, George Regas and the Negro favorite, Clarence Muse.

SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1937

Prominent People To Give Assistance In D. A. V. Military Ball Hospitality

Perhaps the dearest wish of the hearts of Jack Fisher chapter D. A. V. members, was that they might have as honor guest at their annual Military Ball to be held next Tuesday night in Valencia Ballroom, that hero of the World War, General John J. Pershing. That wish is not to be granted, but General Pershing's letter to Harry S. Pickard, past commander of the chapter and general chairman of Ball plans, was so sincere and so fine a tribute, that it went far towards allaying any disappointment.

Since his retirement from active military life, General Pershing ("Black Jack") to all veterans, spends much time in Tucson, Ariz., and it was there that his invitation to that invitation, the general said:

"I regret extremely that the circumstances are such as to prevent my acceptance of your cordial invitation. . . . I shall ever have a very warm spot in my heart for our disabled comrades, and no one can appreciate more than I their sacrifices in their country's service. It would be a distinct privilege, and would afford me real pleasure to meet with your membership on this occasion, but being denied this, I send to all, through you, my warmest greetings and best wishes, with assurance of my sympathy and interest always.

"With appreciation of the courtesy of the invitation, and hoping that the Ball will be a complete success, I am

Yours very sincerely,
JOHN J. PERSHING."

Guest Honors
But even though the veterans are not to have the pleasure of entertaining General Pershing they will have many distinguished men to share special guest honors, and in addition will be privileged to introduce the "Veterans' Sweetheart," Elsie Jania, invitation to these special guests has been extended through Mrs. F. E. Coulter, one of the active workers of the Citizens' committee.

Another member to whom has been delegated one of the most onerous tasks in connection with Ball plans, is Mrs. A. G. Flagg, whose duty it has been to ask leading men and women of the county to serve as patrons and patronesses. Both Mrs. Flagg and Mrs. Coulter have worked on the Citizens' committee ever since the Military Ball was introduced nine years ago.

Those who have accepted Mrs. Flagg's invitation to serve in the capacity as ball patrons Tuesday night, form a long list, and represent every community in the county. Perhaps the longest list is that of Santa Anas for in addition to being the capital seat of the county and the largest city, this city is also headquarters for D. A. V. chapter and auxiliary, both of which are county-wide organizations.

Santa Ana Aides
Many professional men, judges, physicians, attorneys, etc., are represented on this list. Mayor and Mrs. Fred C. Rowland, Senator and Mrs. Harry C. Westover, Judge and Mrs. James L. Allen, Judge and Mrs. Frank C. Drumm, Judge and Mrs. Kenneth E. Morrison, and Judge and Mrs. G. K. Scofield suggest the general civic interest shown.

Prominent among those in the medical and dental professions who have accepted invitation are Drs. and Mesdames Dexter Ball, E. F. Bruning, Lawrence Cameron, Charles V. Doty, Fred E. Easell, James H. Farrage, Fred K. Halber, Chad Harwood, John S. Helmecken, Melbourne Maboe, Hubert B. Nail, G. Stanley Norton, Claude E. Olewiler, Frank H. Paterson, Cassius E. Paul, V. A. Rossiter, Elliott Rowland, F. W. Slabaugh, Harvey M. Spears, K. R. Sutherland, Robert S. Wade, John Wehrly, Dr. Peryl Magill and Dr. Garland C. Ross.

Others in the Santa Ana list include Mrs. Jack Fisher, Mrs. Mary Fisher, Mrs. Harry T. Duckett, Mrs. Emmett Elliott, Miss Lydia Fisher, Messrs. J. P. Baumgartner, James L. Davis, Al Fernandez, Messrs. and Mesdames Earl R. Abbey, Rodney E. Banks, Paul Bailey, Lloyd H. Bacon, E. S. Baker, O. H. Barr, J. W. Beach, Lawrence Bemis, R. B. Bird, Clarence Bond, George Briggs, Harold R. Brown, Robert L. Brown, Alex R. Brownridge, Plummer Bruns, Joe C. Burke, Gilbert E. Campbell, R. S. Chandler, C. H. Chapman, Minor Cox, A. J. Cruickshank, Howard Curran, J. H. Daniger, C. V. Davis, W. L. Dehmling, Alvin Drumm, H. T. Dunning, George Dutton, Harry D. Edwards, E. F. Elfstrom, Richard Emison, Maurice Enderle, E. Farnsworth, C. M. Featherly, Braden Finch, Harvey Gardner, Charles Givens, Robert Guild, W. D. Guthrie, Edward M. Hall, Roy Hall, James Harding, Wayne Harrison, Donald Harwood, Frank Harwood.

From North County
Anaheim's list of patrons and patronesses likewise includes those high in the city's civic and professional life, with Mayor and Mrs. Charles Mann, Assemblyman and Mrs. Thomas Kuchel, Judge and Mrs. Homer Ames, Dr. and Mrs. Homer Nelson, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Waltz, Miss Mary Ellen Chambers, Miss Dorothy Youngbluth, Harry Arthur, Messrs. and Mesdames Herbert Eldred, Leo Friis, E. H. Fuller, Earl Jackson, Gill Koehler, Victor Loly, Clair Liebhart, Louis Loudon, Harry D. Riley, Kenneth Walker, J. W. Walls, Walter Ward, W. P. Webb, Arthur Wilmsen. The citizens' committee for that city is composed of Mrs. Jack Corn, chairman, Mrs. Arthur Shipkey, Harry Arthur, Herbert Eldred and Lotus Loudon.

Brea committee members, Messrs. and Mesdames R. E. Barnes, Ted Craig and Dr. and Mrs. C. Glenn Curtis, will serve with Messrs. and Mesdames L. A. Hogue, M. G. McMahon and E. H. Peterkin. From El Toro will be Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Moulton and from Garden Grove will be Messrs. and Mesdames J. Orland Smith, Herman T. Thorpe and Thomas V. Todd.

Thomas V. Todd is the World War veteran who has spent the past few years in the government hospital at San Fernando, and whose interest in the ball is so keen that he has disposed of a whole block of tickets among visitors to the hospital. Despite the fact that he will have to come in a wheel chair, he plans on being present Tuesday night to greet his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Peabody will represent La Habra on the patron list, while from Fullerton will be Dr. and Mrs. Dale Phetteplace, Messrs. and Mesdames J. Willis Bennis, Sam L. Collins, Albert Launer, Charles MacMaster, E. R. McCoy, H. G. Maxwell, W. E. Maxwell, Charles F. Rapp, Harry F. Smith, W. G. Stedman, Harry N. Suters and Harry E. Welsh. Mrs. Welsh is chairman of the Fullerton Citizens' committee which includes also Norman Lombard, Billy Queale, Mesdames E. R. McCoy, Charles MacMaster, Don Cruickshank, J. Willis Bennis, Harry Smith, W. P. Alexander, and Charles Wickett.

On the list from Huntington Beach where Mrs. D. E. Barry is chairman, will be with Mr. and Mrs. Barry, Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Sheehan, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Whitaker, Messrs. and Mesdames John Africa, E. S. Allen, A. M. Anderson, L. H. Benningsdorf, F. Carnutt, L. Bruxman, Arthur Gillespie, H. W. Hartley, H. M. Hepburn, H. H. McCallen, Jack Robertson, Randall Stone, Herbert Trichter, A. F. Wilson and

Orange County's Patriotic Women Devote Interest And Attention To Military Ball

Each year as Washington's Birthday approaches, and veterans of Jack Fisher chapter D. A. V. prepare to give the gala Military Ball, with whose proceeds they continue their altruistic work for Disabled Veterans, Orange county's patriotic women step forward with new enthusiasm to give their assistance. Among them was present today, reading from left to right, Mrs. Frank L. Smith, head of the citizens' committee of the Harbor district; Mrs. Fannie Reeves, the beloved "Mother" Reeves of all veterans; Mrs. Thomas V. Todd, prominent in the work in Garden Grove district; Mrs. Harry E. Welsh, chairman of the Fullerton division; Mrs. A. G. Flagg, Santa Ana, indefatigable worker each year, and this year in charge of patron and patroness list; Mrs. Glenn Curtis, Brea committee worker; Mrs. Dean Laub of Santa Ana, commander of D.A.V. auxiliary. The ball is to be held next Tuesday night in Valencia Ballroom.

Party Marks Birthday Anniversaries of Two Guests

Dr. and Mrs. E. Flint were hosts at a dinner party Thursday night in their home in Tustin, celebrating the birthday anniversaries of their five-year old grandson, John Wesley McKittick, and of Dr. Flint's sister, Mrs. W. O. Nichols of Orange.

Calendulas and tapers brightened the table where dinner was served. A birthday cake decked with candles was served as a feature of the dessert course.

Sharing the affair with Dr. and Mrs. Flint were Mr. and Mrs. John A. McKittick and their son, John Wesley of Tustin; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Kenner, Orange; Mr. and Mrs. Lee I. Brown, Carlsbad; Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Taylor, Santa Ana; Mrs. Grace Null, Whittier.

Gay Party Celebrates Third Birthday

Master Bruce Beckley's third birthday anniversary was occasion for his very first party, a gala affair which took place Thursday afternoon in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beckley, 115 East Cuylen street.

A miniature cherry tree lo centering the dining room table was filled with gifts for the guests, who came into possession of the gleam of many candies and small bubble bowls in which Tailsman roses floated.

Mary Batten Steffenson (Mrs. J. Leslie Steffenson), president of the host club, and Clarence Gustlin, local manager of the artist series of which Homer Simmons was guest-artist supreme, presided over the special table. Mrs. Steffenson started introduction of guests with that of Homer Simmons, who graciously acceptance of party honors seemed a strange gesture from an artist of such international fame.

Many club features were retained, including the greeting song of which Holly Lash Visel is author and Earl Fraser, composer, and the gaily sung welcome to the honor guest, Clarence Gustlin and Ruth Armstrong alternated as piano accompanists, and Beulah Parker led the songs, Cecyle Fross Willis (Mrs. Thomas Willis) accepted the responsibility for introducing an impromptu amusement feature, when she asked for the various musician guests to tell some embarrassing situation that has arisen in their public appearance.

Results were beyond description, for some of the most amusing contraptions were described, those of Homer Simmons himself, and those of Clarence Gustlin of this city. Mrs. Willis, Clarence Kollong (organist of Los Angeles First Congregational church), and Ruth Armstrong being among the funniest.

Musical Arts Members Present After-Concert Supper

No more enjoyable a finale to a memorable evening could be devised than that which Musical Arts club planned last night as a sequel to the Homer Simmons concert in the high school auditorium, when club members and a number of their friends complimented the guest artist at an after-concert supper in Daniger's.

Introduced at the Rose Bampton concert of recent date, the supper party idea met with such favor that last night's successful follow-up event promises to make it a regular feature of all similar concert programs. Scores of music lovers sought Daniger's, there to meet the guest artist, Mr. Simmons, members of the party accompanying that from Los Angeles, other musical guests from that city and from San Pedro, and those from different points in Orange county.

Provision had been made at the cafe for satisfying appetites that ranged capriciously from bacon and eggs to pie a la mode, and tables were tempting indeed with the gleam of many candies and small bubble bowls in which Tailsman roses floated.

Former Missourians Organize Club

Former residents of Rockport, Mo., whose homes are now in the Southland were brought together to organize a club Thursday when the home of Mrs. Lucy Wyatt, 1301 South Ross street, was opened to the group. The occasion also marked birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Wyatt and of Mrs. Mary Miller of this city.

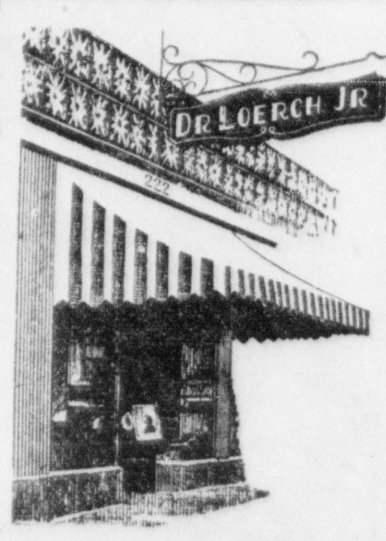

So that they will keep in touch with each other, and with the activities of friends and former associates in Rockport, members of the group will hold meetings quarterly. The next session will take place May 6, in the Glendale home of Mrs. Gertrude Rohwedder.

Mrs. Nellie Dean was elected president of the new club, which will be open to all former residents of Rockport, the county seat of Atchison County, Mo.

Covered-dish luncheon was enjoyed early in the afternoon. Mrs. Wyatt and Mrs. Miller were showered with handkerchiefs from the assembled group.

Present were Mesdames Sarah Chase, Nellie Dean, Elizabeth Christian, Gertrude Rohwedder, Elsie Green, Eleanor Klump, Bessie Arnold and Master George Edward Klump, Glendale; Mrs. Hattie Crouse, and Mrs. Nellie Drago of Burbank; Mrs. H. Weaver, Rockport resident who is visiting in the southland; the Misses Beverly Cole, Mildred Cole, Master Bobbie Cole and Mesdames Mary Miller, Frank T. Haddell, Lucy E. Wyatt, Mary Cole, Leafy Overman, Ethel Stewart and E. E. Richards, Santa Ana.

were Mrs. Bond, president, Mesdames E. E. Frisby, Leonard Musick, Robert Steinberger, Richard Metz, Harold Wahlberg, James Givens and T. E. Lord.

Nonagenarian
To Celebrate
Her Birthday

Fingers busy on a quilt for her grandson; mind alert to affairs of the day; and a memory which takes her back through the years of a life of service to family and friends—these brighten the days for Mrs. Lucilla L. Dittus, who will celebrate her 83rd birthday anniversary tomorrow.

The quilt on which Mrs. Dittus is now busy is of the eight-point star pattern, and will be a birthday present to Fred Hampton, Santa Ana high school student who will celebrate his 17th anniversary in April. Just as have Mrs. Dittus' other grandchildren, no doubt Fred will add his grandmother's gift of a quilt to a collection of heirlooms to enjoy in the future.

Fred and his mother, Mrs. Alma D. Hampton, resides with their grandmother and mother, Mrs. Dittus, at 1185 French street. Others who are expected to share with the nonagenarian in a quiet observance tomorrow are Mrs. Alice E. Harris and Miss Helen Klein of the home; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Schmitt and children, Marjorie and Stephen Jr. of Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. De Moss and daughter, Mary Edna of Hinds, Calif. Mrs. Schmitt and Mr. De Moss are granddaughter and grandson of Mrs. Dittus.

Two of Mrs. Dittus' seven children are living. They are Mrs. Hampton of this city and C. F. Dittus of Burdette, Kans.

Mrs. Dittus, who has lived in this city since last September, came here from Los Angeles, where she resided for 30 years. She was born February 21, 1854 in Wilmington, Clinton county, Ohio. Since her arrival in Santa Ana, she has joined First Methodist church, and has formed many friendships here.

Hostess Makes
Announcement
Of Betrothal

While unwrapping lovely shower packages presented to her last night, Miss Dora Tedford was surprised to find that the gifts included a box of chocolates with accompanying card linking the names of Miss Hazel Spencer and Richard Pinkerton with March 20 as the date chosen for their wedding.

Other guests at a party in the home of Miss Betty Hawk, 524 West Santa Clara avenue were equally surprised, for no hint had been given that the engagement news would be announced. The occasion was a crystal shower at which Miss Hawk, Mrs. Gordon McHatten (Iona De Remer) and Miss Spencer entertained in compliment to Miss Tedford, whose marriage to Raymond Todd will take place Sunday afternoon in Laguna Beach.

Former Classmates
The three hostesses and Miss Tedford attended junior college together, and were members of Sisterhood of Spinsters. Many of the guests at last night's affair were former classmates of the group. Hearts was played during the evening, with prizes going to Miss Margaret Fine and Mrs. George Smith.

Dessert was served late in the evening while guests were seated at small tables. Adorning the dining room table was a miniature bridal party complete with bride and several attendants. Flowers used in decorating included hyacinths sent by Mrs. Frank G. Pinkerton, mother of Richard Pinkerton.

Presentation of shower gifts to Miss Tedford came as a climaxing feature of the evening. Miss Spencer's package, with its interesting announcement and box of candy was passed among the excited group. Miss Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer of Costa Mesa, is a graduate of junior college. She is employed as secretary in Costa Mesa Elementary school. Mr. Pinkerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Pinkerton, North Main street, is employed in the Flood Control office of this city. He is a graduate of University of California, having had his earlier studies at junior college.

Guests
Sharing the affair were Miss Hawk's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Chester Hawk of this city and Mrs. Myra Hawk of Los Angeles, who assisted in hostess duties; the Misses Dorothy Obar, Florence Turner, Mary Jean Du Bois, Patsy Oliphant, Margaret Fine, Bernice Keller, Dolly Cox, Martha Heemstra; Mesdames W. E. Gerken, Edward Gaebe, Blanche ard Beatty, Santa Ana; Miss Tedford's mother and sister, Mrs. T. F. Tedford of this city and Miss Edith Tedford of Riverside; Mr. Todd's mother and sister, Mrs. S. W. Todd of Orange and Mrs. Marjorie Anderson (Dolly Todd) of Visalia; Mrs. George Smith, Miss Helen Volberding, Miss Elizabeth Palmer, Orange; Mrs. Robert Harvey, Anaheim; Mrs. Dorothy Gossett, Fullerton; Mrs. Ray De Remer, Miss Saragrace Frampton, Artesia; Miss Blanche Stewart, Lone Pine; with the three hostesses, Miss Hawk, Mrs. McHatten and Miss Spencer, and the honoree, Miss Tedford.

Parties Today
Miss Tedford received feminine members of her bridal party today at one o'clock luncheon, when she and her mother, Mrs. T. F. Tedford were hostesses in their home, 424 East Walnut street.

Hyacinths in bud vases centered small tables where luncheon was served. In the group with Miss Tedford and the bride-elect were Miss Edith Tedford, who will be her sister's maid of honor; the Misses Dorothy Obar and Betty Hawk and Mrs. Gordon De Remer, who will be other attendants; Mrs. Chester Hawk, who is assisting in carrying out various details for the wedding; and Miss Ruth Armstrong, who will be pianist.

At three o'clock this afternoon the group was to be joined by men of the bridal party in a rehearsal at Laguna Community Presbyterian church. Tonight will bring a buffet supper at which Mr. Todd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Todd of Orange will entertain in their home at Corona del Mar.

State Solons
Give Program
For League

Questions and detailed answers were the order of the day Thursday when League of Women Voters held a luncheon meeting in the Doris Kathryn, turning the program over to State Senator Harry Westover of this city and Representative Clyde Watson of Orange.

League members held their monthly meeting a day early for the convenience of the two solons, who departed for Boulder Dam shortly after the meeting. The legislators and Robert Steinberger of the sheriff's office, who gave a short talk, were introduced by President Mrs. M. E. Geeting.

Each member was given the opportunity to ask one question of each of the two legislators. "Social Security" proved of general interest. Senator Westover, who is chairman of the social security bill in the senate, pointed out that so many bills on the subject have been introduced in the legislature, that it is impossible to predict just which form of social security will be incorporated into a new law.

Westover summarized some of the plans presented in the interest of reorganizing the state department of social welfare, California League of Women Voters has introduced one of these bills, it was pointed out. Among the bills presented by Westover is one calling for the abolishment of compulsory military training in colleges and universities of the state.

Assemblyman Watson spoke of the efforts which the current legislature is making to do away with skeleton bills.

Announcement was made that the next meeting of the league will be held Friday, March 19, at the Doris Kathryn.

Stamp News

By I. S. Klein

NEW 20 and 50-cent stamps, similar to the 25-cent trans-Pacific airmail type, have been placed on sale at the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C. These are designed for use in connection with new airmail rates across the Pacific, beginning with the first flight beyond Manila to Macao and Hong Kong. This flight is scheduled for March 24, weather permitting.

New rates also have been established. These are:
U. S. to Hawaii, 20 cents; to Guam, 40 cents; to Manila, 50 cents; to Hong Kong-Macao, 70 cents.
Hawaii to U. S., 20 cents; to Guam, 20 cents; to Manila, 30 cents; to Hong Kong-Macao, 50 cents.

Guam to U. S., 40 cents; to Hawaii, 20 cents; to Manila, 10 cents; to Hong Kong-Macao, 30 cents.
Rates from Manila and the Chinese ports depend on the decisions of the Philippine and British postal authorities. These will be announced later. Meantime, the various stops both ways, get the stamps from Washington and hold them ready for further details on handling these covers. The Post Office Department will announce these later.

Since there may be some difficulty in handling covers at Manila and in China, it is believed that the Pan-American Airlines may serve cover collectors at these points, but an additional charge may be made.
The new stamps are exactly like the present 25-cent trans-Pacifics, except that the date, "November, 1935," is lacking.

STOPPING VOLUNTEERS

At midnight tonight, 25 nations of Europe have agreed to make the deadline for each country to ban its voluntary aid to either Spanish faction.

The same date is to mark the completion of the committee's plan to block shipment of both men and guns to Spain.

We hope it will help bring order out of chaos in Spain.

BROTHERHOOD DAY

While Germany, Russia and Italy have had such serious religious regulations, it is interesting to note that here in the United States, February 20 and 21 will be Brotherhood Day.

On this occasion, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and News in cooperation with the University Religious Conference, members of the three major religious groups will unite in a program fostering a spirit of justice, mutual understanding and good will.

EDUCATIONAL IF NOTHING ELSE

Even if the movement to arouse the people against packing the Supreme Court is not successful, it will be worth the effort in getting people to a little better understanding what the Bill of Rights, protecting their individual rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, really means to them. They little realize that the Constitution even protects them in their individual rights in city, state and county legislation.

If there were no Bill of Rights protecting the rights of the individual, the voting majority in any subdivision could pass most any legislation it saw fit taking away freedom of the press, right of religious worship, right to contract, right to sell one's services to the world's highest bidder, and people's right in property.

It will be educational, if nothing else.

NRA'S EFFECT ON BUSINESS

The President's decision to revive the NRA (for that is the most significant implication behind the Supreme Court's proposal) has prompted economists to revive the history of the rise and fall of the National Recovery Administration. In a nutshell, one of the most authoritative commentators on that period, the Brookings Institution, stated, "It is interesting to note . . . that the two measures which gave the greatest initial impetus to industrial expansion, namely, dollar depreciation and the anticipation of the NRA program to raise costs and prices, were the very measures which in the end threatened to undermine the whole recovery program. . . . The NRA not only became administratively impossible and a source of endless confusion and controversy, but it failed to increase the real income of the laboring classes as a whole, and tended to checkmate the policy of increasing the real purchasing power of the agricultural population."

EXPERIMENT DELAYED

Had the regulation and regimentation of the NRA and the AAA been in effect for a year or two longer and been in force before the Supreme Court annulled them, we would not now be trying to pack the Supreme Court so that we could get the experience of what regimentation and the government controlling the minute details of our lives, really means.

It is evident that we did not have enough of the experience. We probably will have to go through with it in order to really learn what it means to have the Federal Government telling you what you can sow; when you can sell and at what price; to whom you can sell; what you can manufacture; to whom you can sell it; what you should pay for help; whom you can hire; whom you can discharge; what constitutes a day's work. This is really what the NRA and the AAA meant but these laws were so poorly enforced and for such a short time that the public could not see what they eventually would lead to.

No people ever liked their government to have absolute control after they had actually tried it. The United States has been so free from government regulation that those who have not studied history cannot picture what it really means. We probably will have to go through the Gethsemane of this experience in order for the people of the United States to become convinced that they really want personal liberty, as far as the right to work and use their initiative as they see fit. It is of course an expensive lesson but there seems to be no other way.

SUPPRESSING INVENTIONS?

We presume there is one belief about as universally believed as any we know and to our mind, does a great amount of harm. It is that big business, or owners of natural resources, invariably buy up ideas or patents which will reduce their profits and suppress the patents.

In an article in the Los Angeles Times, under the heading of, "A Hardy Perennial," Bailey Millard, remarks that undoubtedly Rockefeller bought up and kept off the market all devices of increasing gasoline mileage. He uses the reported claim of a Mr. Nelson of Winnipeg, that he has a carburetor that will give 200 miles to the gallon of gas.

This same belief was expressed the other day to the writer by a group of high school boys and they were certainly sold on this being a fact. When asked to present a concrete case where this had happened, they had no evidence but were dead sure it was constantly happening.

We personally cannot imagine how any successful corporation spending millions and millions of dollars, like the oil companies do, to improve the quality of their gas would suppress any invention or any improvement that would enable them to take the business from all their competitors and make more money by the new improvement than they could by the old method. It simply does not make sense.

This belief is invariably spread by those who want to picture the successful man as a man who delights in the poverty and misery of the masses. They are willing to believe anything that substantiates their contention that the financially successful are cruel crooks—that financial bigness is the result of cruelty and crookedness. They delight in spreading fiction of this kind and actually believe it themselves.

FOREIGN DEBTS

According to press reports, the financial newspaper Information, Mons. P. de Brinon says that a new French ambassador, Bonnet, is being sent to Washington to examine how the prohibition of the Johnson law, forbidding loans to defaulting states, could be overcome.

Mons. Brinon further reveals that if France and England would make a series of payments up to 50 per cent, it seems possible new international loans could be written. He thinks that some payments could be made if "assurances" that in case France and Great Britain went to war with Germany, the two former countries could receive from the United States credits and merchandise which their adversaries could not obtain.

The French and English are clever in finance and making shrewd bargains, as they were in drawing us into the pact putting our money on the same basis as theirs, but we certainly will not agree to any such settlement as this.

SHARPLESS WALKER.

Editor Register: It surely is interesting to be on the sidelines and note with interest the different people who seem to think that out of them, and their ideas Orange county is run, and without their ideas, would not amount to much.

What I have reference to, is the back page of the Register, for there each evening I scan the different articles, written by our friends. Each has his own pet theory as to the best way to curb all of our ills.

The writer believes that many of the parties are in the same boat as a certain colored minister who told his congregation that he was going to run for the legislature, but he hastened to explain that "when I elucidates, Ah goes deep. In fact, lots of times Ah goes so deep Ah doan' understand myself."

Tonight, I notice that Dr. J. G. Bernicke, M. D., takes it upon himself to show what is wrong with the lawyers. I am not one who would galsay the statements of the honorable doctor, for, as I said before, I do not understand all I read on this page.

What I do not understand is why the good doctor should try to correct the evils of the lawyers. For, as I understand it, the doctors admit that they are only right half of the time. If the lawyers did not have a better batting average than this they would all be in jail. But of course the doctors bury their mistakes, and that helps them some. Doctor Bernicke says a law should be passed to take away the privilege of an attorney to tell a lie. I say "Amen." But how about the physician who says, "The patient is getting along as well as can be expected," when he is already on the way to the mortuary. But why bring all this up, as I am not going to spend all my life correcting either the evils of the lawyers or doctors?

I enjoy reading the editorials written by "Ye Editor," but I hasten to remind you that I don't understand all of these either. As the head of the family I am supposed to keep abreast of the times, but Mr. Hollies goes me and some of the other readers one better, and keeps out in front of us all. And so you see there is no hope.

It is well to know that this editorial business and the backfire comments have been reduced to certain parties. The game so far has been all in good clean fun, and I can only wish that the shell fire would be a little more direct so that the fire would not go over our heads.

Yours for more simplicity, NOT A DOCTOR, NOT A LAWYER, JUST A LAYMAN.

Editor Register: Thanks for the Clearing House. I agree with your remarks in regard to Sharpless Walker's latest "blurb."

If it were not for one or two who break into print every few days and say nothing and what they do write often being far from the facts, the Clearing House would be fine.

OUR CHILDREN

BY ANGELO PATRI

FAITH

If I could give a child just one aid toward a happy life I would give him faith. First I would teach him to have faith in himself. He needs that if he is to try to do anything from tying his shoe to building his castle of dreams into actualities. Begin with little children. Give them things to do that are well within their power to do, so they can succeed, and so have faith in their ability to do what they want to do.

It is very easy to discourage a child so that he loses faith in himself and cries, "I can't." Giving him things to do that are unfamiliar and, therefore, full of fear for him, is one way. Always introduce new experiences cautiously, and do not ask a child to try one out until he has lost his fear of it, until he has seen something familiar in it. The familiar is always a help, especially the one that has proved successful before.

Next, the child needs faith in other people. He cannot get along without that. He has to believe in the good intentions of those about him, believe in their word, and in their behavior toward him. He cannot live alone, he cannot be independent of people, not ever in all his life. This faith in their fundamental goodness is essential to him, and he wins that faith with experiences shared with his parents, teachers and relatives.

It is easy enough to cause him to lose it and set him adrift on a sea of uncertainty. That will make him afraid and once he is beset by fear his chances of success and happiness are greatly lessened if not destroyed. Guard your promises, guard your behavior, guard your thinking so as to preserve the child's faith in you as a person who is to be trusted, therefore loved.

Last and always, a child needs faith in God. God is a word for goodness, for truth, for beauty. Begin by teaching a child to look for the beauty that is everywhere about him in the growing things, in the animals, in the flowers and fruits. Teach him to look at the sky often, to marvel at its beauty and lose himself in its infinity and return to earth with renewed power and strengthened faith in the goodness of all that he sees. Teach him that wherever he finds beauty, truth, love, he finds God.

You won't be able to explain God. Neither will you be able to explain faith. There is no explanation for either. "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." God is felt, not seen, and the feel of Him cannot be spelled out in the terms of the laboratory. One takes Him on faith and one finds that something that comforts and satisfies him beyond all earthly finding.

Teach a child then to have faith in himself, in his people, in his ever-normal grandfather, in his daily associations with him. The rest won't matter, for having secured his faith, all other things are open to him.

News Behind The News

By Paul Mallon

INNOCENCE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Henry Wallace, the agriculture secretary, has been insisting all along that he is just a hayseed Puritan in the political world of Washington. He just cannot seem to understand politics—he says.

Some doubt about it arose during the last presidential campaign, when Mr. Wallace played Little Red Riding Hood to Governor Land's wolf throughout the farm belt, and won every state, including Kansas.

After what happened in the secret meeting of his recent committee of eighteen farm legislation framers recently, it has become increasingly evident that Mr. Wallace's beard is getting a little heavy for the Red Riding Hood role.

It did not get out at the time, but there was one thing in Mr. Wallace's official manuscript for the farm conference that the farm representatives declined to read from his prepared script. They were ready to back him on ever-normal granary, crop insurance, soil conservation and all the other things, but they scratched their ears when they saw he wanted to continue the soil conservation and domestic allotment act until 1942. His ally, Chairman Jones of the house agriculture committee, had then gone so far as to introduce the official bill in congress, proposing extension until 1942.

The farm representatives reminded each other that there would be another presidential election in 1940 and that Mr. Wallace was being prominently mentioned as the possible candidate of the new order.

Note—Incidentally, most of the agricultural congressmen are now confessing they did not really mean it when they wrote the law that the soil conservation and allotment act was to be turned over to the various states in 1938. In the words of one member of the Jones committee, they "just put that in for the benefit of the supreme court."

Such a disguise of the real purposes of federal control is now no longer considered to be essential, but it will be perpetuated to 1940 as a matter of routine.

PURPOSE
The farm program seems to be simply this: Wallace intends to build up reserves this year by encouraging production; if surpluses accumulate, he wants to make commodity loans; and then, in the year after the commodity loans are made, he wants to control production drastically to protect his loans.

DEBATE
It appears some senators are writing their own speeches on the court issue. That always has been considered a dangerous practice in organized drives. It has resulted this time in considerable confusion among the advocates of Mr. Roosevelt's proposal.

For instance, advocating Senator Minton took the air to argue that the president should have the right to "un-pack" the supreme court by packing it with new judges.

McAdoo, arguing the president would never, never think of packing the court, but merely wanted to help the overworked judges.

Third came advocating Senator Byrnes, saying the president intended to pack the court and it was a good thing.

The opposition had decided to remain quiet, permitting the proponents to conduct what amounted to an unintentional debate among themselves.

HERE AND THERE
The number of grade crossing accidents has decreased 27 per cent in the last 10 years, but the number of cars which have crashed into the side of trains has increased 75 per cent.

Some suggestions for reducing the death toll are: Heavier penalties for drunk drivers; compulsory insurance; state laws requiring retirement of all cars after a certain number of years in service. Others are: compulsory inspection of mechanism at regular intervals; removal of death traps; more four-lane highways; and a more rigid examination of drivers for licenses.

The barrier starts rising when the train is approximately 20 seconds distant, and continues to rise at the rate of two inches per second until it is 10 inches high on the right side of the road and five on the left.

REGISTER CLEARING HOUSE

THE SUPREME COURT

Editor Register: Your editorial in Wednesday's Register complains that I did not discuss the merits of the supreme court but instead confined myself to an alleged attack upon Carter Glass and the Times.

My transmittal letter explained that I was not discussing the merits of the supreme court issue for the reason that I expected to argue the subject orally at the Public Forum Tuesday evening, but apparently it did not come under the observation of the one who wrote the editorial. There was another reason, and that was: Neither Carter Glass nor the Times made any statements of facts or presented any logical arguments against the president's proposal that could serve as a basis of discussion or that needed any reply.

Further, I discussed the record of Mr. Glass and the Times in relation to their attitude on national policies of grave importance. And may I inquire: Since when did discussion of the attitude of a United States senator and a metropolitan newspaper on high policies of the United States government become properly characterizable as a merely personal attack?

Personal attacks are being made, but they are coming from the conservatives, opposing reform of the supreme court. An illustration is the letter of Fred Vollmer in the Register. He makes an attack upon the President and eltes the attitudes of numerous persons and bar associations, but states not a single reason why justices of the supreme court should not now be appointed.

More than 20 years ago the conservative Justice McReynolds proposed that additional justices be appointed when acting justices reach 70 years of age. In all the years not a single objection has been made until now that it would be "packing the court."

Nine years ago Charles E. Hughes, now chief justice, recommended an arbitrary age retirement. His proposal would require the appointment of four new justices now, and would eliminate three of the four conservative justices. No sound reason has been stated assailing the force or logic of that proposal.

How does it happen that proposals which for 20 years and 9 years were considered safe and sound, should now suddenly become radical and dangerous, and threaten the integrity of the supreme court?

Mr. Vollmer is disappointed that the Orange county lawyers do not take a patriotic stand. In a spirit of helpfulness I suggest that he submit to the Orange County Bar association the following resolution for consideration:

"RESOLVED: That we are unalterably opposed to the plan proposed by Justice McReynolds that additional supreme court justices be appointed when acting justices pass the age of 70 years; and unalterably opposed to the recommendation of Chief Justice Hughes that new justices be appointed when justices attain the age of 75 years.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That we are strongly opposed to all such plans, particularly at this time, when the number of justices who are over 70 and 75 years of age, the number of justices who are not doing their share of court work, and the number of undecided cases, are greater, and the need for new justices more urgent, than when Justice McReynolds and Chief Justice Hughes made their recommendations."

Another point made by Mr. Vollmer is that Voltaire wrote "Irene" at 84, and Verdi composed "Falstaff" at 85. Evidence is lacking as to how many regular hours of sustained and intensive application Voltaire and Verdi devoted to their work.

Are we to infer that the justices now 75 or 80 can also write "Irene" and "Falstaff"? Or are we to arrive at the conclusion that if among all the hundreds of millions of the earth's inhabitants a few old men regularly engaged, action that proves that all men of advanced age may do exacting intellectual work throughout regular hours of sustained and intensive application?
